JOHN A. DIX HEADS DEMOCRAT TICKET

Chairman of Convention Nominated For Governor of New York.

CONWAY HIS RUNNING MATE

Strenuous Conferences Finally Resulted in Dix Accepting—Platform Denounces Republican Rule. Features.

Convention Hall, Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 30.—The Democratic State convention tonight nominated the following ticket for the next State election:

For Governor—John A. Dix, Washington county.

For Lieutenant Governor—Thomas F. Conway, Clinton county.

For Secretary of State—Edward Lacansky, Kings county.

For Comptroller—William Sohmer, New York.

For State Treasurer—John J. Kennedy, Erie county.

For Attorney General—Thomas J. Carmody, Yates county.

For State Engineer and Surveyor—John A. Bensel, New York.

For Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals—Frederick K. Collin, Chemung county.

This list of candidates, prepared after a day of almost continuous conferences, went through shortly after midnight, with only two halts in its quick progress. This was the presentation of the name of Congressman William Sulzer as the only rival candidate for Governor. Mr. Sulzer received 16 of the 450 votes of the convention and Mr. Dix got the rest.

Supreme Court Justice James A. Bates, of Ulster county, was the only other candidate presented in opposition to the leaders.

For Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals he received 22 votes, but before the result of the balloting was announced the nomination of Mr. Collin was made unanimous on the motion of Ulster's delegate.

The ticket was concluded by the nomination of Frederick K. Collin, of Elmira, for Associate Justice of the Court of Appeals.

Then John B. Stanchfield, of Elmira, moved that the convention endorse the candidacy of Irving G. Vann, who has been nominated to succeed himself in the second vacancy on the Court of Appeals bench. The motion was carried unanimously.

The convention took its final adjournment at 12:25 A. M., and the delegates made a rush for their trains.

While the delegates in the convention hall awaited the arrival of the leaders, with growing impatience, word came from the conference at the Seneca that Martin H. Glynn had sent word from Albany that he would not accept the nomination for comptroller. Mr. Glynn was an avowed candidate for Governor.

The question of the lieutenant governorship also continued to give trouble. Congressman James H. Haven, another candidate for first place, on the ticket was said to be the leader's first choice, but his representatives declared that under no circumstances would he accept. Then Mr. Conway yielded and agreed to accept the nomination for lieutenant governor.

At 9:45 the leaders become convinced that Mr. Glynn was steadfast in his refusal to run and they completed the ticket by placing thereon William Sohmer, of New York, as the candidate for comptroller and left the hotel to go to the convention hall.

The Platform Adopted.

The platform adopted pledged the party first to the preservation of the "old nationalism." It condemned "all attacks upon the Supreme Court of the United States. It declared for sovereign State rights "for the largest possible measure of home rule for all cities of the State."

It denounced the Republican party for its government of the State. It declared that the Payne-Aldrich tariff law for a flagrant breach of faith, by the Republican party and responsible for the high cost of living. Only by

LORIMER BRIBERY STILL ON BOARDS

Library of Congress

Postmastership in S... Town Involved in One Representatives' Vote.

ALTOGETHER SIX TESTIFIED

"Plenty of the Ready Necessary" Was the Promise to One Legislator. Good State Jobs for the Asking.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—State Representative Henry A. Shephard, of Jerseyville, Ill., a Democrat, testified today before the Lorimer Senatorial investigating committee that he was induced to vote for William Lorimer for Senator on the verbal promise of Mr. Lorimer that he would do all in his power to prevent the appointment of two certain Jerseyville men to the postmastership of that town. Shephard said he still hoped that the promise would be performed.

Altogether six witnesses of whom four were members of the State Legislature which elected Senator Lorimer, were heard today. George W. Myers was the only legislator of the four who did not vote for Lorimer for Senator. His testimony in substance was that he had refused to vote for Mr. Lorimer after he had been informed by Minority Leader Lee O'Neill Browne that there were good State jobs and "plenty of the ready necessary" in prospect if he voted that way.

Representative Michael Link testified that he received $1,000 from Browne and $900 from Representative Wilson in St. Louis, but insisted that the money was not in payment for his vote which he declared he cast for Senator Lorimer because of his position in favor of Federal aid in the Illinois deep waterway project.

Representative John DeWolf, of Fulton county, declared that he voted for Senator Lorimer to "break the deadlock". He said that nothing was promised for his vote and he did not receive anything for it. The other two witnesses corroborated some of the statements of Representative White, the first witness called in the hearing.

UNIVERSITY AFFAIRS.

Football Outlook—Musical Association—Class Elections, —etc.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., Sept. 30.—Dr. Brides, Coach Cailwell, Dr. Lawson and Roach Stuart have been drilling the football team hard all this week Scrimmages have been held every afternoon and the team is rapidly rounding into form. In a regular game under the new rules this afternoon, four quarters, fifteen minutes each, being played, the 'Varsity beat the scrubs 11 to 0. However the teams were well matched and both scores were on spectacular plays, Winston running the length of the field once for a touchdown, with a returned punt. Those showing up best in the game were Ross, Spencer, Young, Crutchfield and McLean on the scrubs and Winston, Porter, Thompson and Abernathy on the 'Varsity. All of these men will probably get a try out in the game on Saturday.

The musical association has been reoorganized for the year and daily practices under the leadership of Mr. W. B. Ellis, of Winston-Salem is bringing the twenty piece brass band into dandy shape. At a recent meeting of the musically inclined at the University, the following officers were elected for the year W. B. Ellis, Winston-Salem, president; M. B. Wyatt, Durham, vice-president, and J. R. Wildman, Chapel Hill, secretary and treasurer. A Glee Club and orchestra will be organized soon and there is some talk of the University Glee Club taking a trip this Fall. A manager is to be elected for this organization in the near future.

A bible study rally has been started by the student Y. M. C. A., and Rev. Melton Clark, of the First Presbyterian Church, Greensboro, spoke recently before the association, emphasizing the good of the study of the Bible. Over two hundred men have already been enrolled and it is the hope that last year's record of over 400 Bible students in the University, can be broken by this year's record.

KILLS MAN FOR $2.25.

Chicago Woman Shot Clothes Dyer—Was Unable to Change Bill.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—Miss Inez Barton, a maker and cleaner of dresses, aged 23 years, today shot and fatally wounded Walter Roberts, a cleaner and dyer, at Miss Barton's home. Roberts died later.

According to the police, Roberts called for some clothes which Miss Barton had been cleaning for him. She demanded her pay, $2.25, and Roberts tendered a $50 bill. Miss Barton was unable to get the necessary change. Then Roberts is said to have started to depart with the money and the clothes.

Miss Barton called on him to wait. She got a revolver from a dresser and as the dyer turned around she shot him, it is alleged.

The bullet entered his brain. At a hospital $1,300 was found on his person. His assailant made no atempt to escape.

BOARD IS TRYING TO AVERT LOCKOUT

Efforts Made to Settle Trouble in the Cotton Industry in England.

AFFECTS 130,000 OPERATIVES

Threatens to Affect the Whole Industrial Population of Lancashire. Many Conferences Held Yesterday.

London, Sept. 30.—The Board of Trade intervened today in an attempt to avert a lockout in the cotton industry which is threatened for October 3rd.

An official of the board went to Manchester to interview members of the Federation of Master Cotton Spinners and representatives of the employes and hoped to be able to arrange a round table conference. The masters and the workmen met at Manchester this evening, but the conference broke up without a settlement, having been reached. The Employers' Federation therefore ordered mills to close at noon tomorrow.

Manchester, England, Sept. 30—Geo. Ranken Askwith, comptroller general of the commercial, labor and statistical departments of the London Board of Trade, was busily interviewed by prominent persons on both sides of the dispute until midnight tonight in a last desperate effort to stave off a war in the cotton trade, but there is only the slenderest hope that he will succeed.

A lockout by the cotton manufacturers would affect 130,000 operatives and should the conflict be a prolonged one it eventually would involve 250,000 other operatives in the weaving and other dependent industries and indirectly affect the whole industrial population of Lancashire.

OIL BURNERS AROUND.

Vessels Will be Replaced for Service on Atlantic Coast.

New York, Sept. 30.—The oil burning steamships Yale and Harvard, the swiftest coastwise ships in the world, will make their last trips between this port and Boston this week. They will then be prepared for the longest voyage they will ever undertake, that is, from New York to San Francisco, through the Straist of Magellan, about 10,000 nautical miles. They will take no passengers and it has not been decided yet whether or not their skippers will go with them.

Reports of the sale of the two ships have been current for several weeks, but are now officially confirmed. They have been purchased by a Pacific coast company, which will use them between San Francisco and Los Angeles.

The two boats will be replaced next spring between New York and Boston by two new boats as they have been profitable investments to the owners, and have practically paid the cost of construction, $1,500,000 each, since they were put into commission.

They will leave New York for San Francisco on October 10 and are expected to make the trip in about fifty days.

STRIKE OF RAILROAD CLERKS.

Places of the striking men have been rapidly filled, it is said. The latter maintain their confidence in an ultimate victory.

Bankers' Trip Across Continent Costs a Million

New York, Sept. 30.—Four trains were scheduled to arrive in Los Angeles today that will cost the excursionists aboard more than a million dollars to ride on. No such amount of money was ever before expended by one crowd to cross the American continent, says railroad men. The 400 persons who are spending all this wealth are Eastern bankers who are going to the Western city to attend the convention of the American Bankers' Association which will be in session from October 3 to 8, inclusive. Before reaching Los Angeles the bankers and their wives will view the Grand Canyon of the Colorado and the Garden of the Gods, and after the adjournment of the convention they will return to their Eastern homes by way of the far famed Canadian Rockies. TEDDY TO COME SOUTH SOON

Itinerary for Ex-President's Tour Completed Yesterday—Atlanta Stay Will be Feature—Where He Speaks.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 30.—Bringing with him his son-in-law, Representative Nicholas Longworth, of Cincinnati, Col. Roosevelt returned to New York late this afternoon. Although he will entertain the Nassau county delegates to the Republican State convention at luncheon tomorrow, he said he would hold no political conferences at Sagamore Hill until after Southern trip which begins on Thursday, the itinerary for which was completed today.

The attack on Col. Roosevelt which appeared today in in the Des Moines News, which is said to be Senator Cummins' personal organ, brought forth no comment from the colonel beyond the statement that he had heard of it. It is known, however, that he regards the State platform not as an expression of his own ideas, but rather as a reflection of the views of the party.

Col. Roosevelt's ten day tour through the South and Southwest begins on October 6th. He will leave New York in a private car at 3:25 P. M. The first stop will be at Bristol, Va., where Mr. Roosevelt will make a brief address to the citizens of that town, under the charge of the Board of Trade. The second stop is Knoxville, Tenn., where he will deliver an address at the Appalachian Exposition. The stay at Knoxville covers the afternoon and evening of Friday, October 7th. The party next goes to Rome, Ga., where Mr. Roosevelt will address the citizens of Rome and vicinity.

The special feature of Mr. Roosevelt's stay in Atlanta, which is the next stop, is an address before the Uncle Remus Memorial Association on the evening of October 8th. He will also speak at a conservation meeting in the afternoon and will be entertained by the Mayor of Atlanta at a private dinner.

Leaving Atlanta on October 9th, the party will arrive at Hot Springs, Ark., where Mr. Roosevelt will be entertained at the Arkansas State Fair on October 10th. From there the party will go to St. Louis, spending 24 hours under the direction of Governor Hadley and the city and State Republican committees. A breakfast will be given by the Business Men's League, there will be a luncheon with the Traffic Club, and a public address under the auspices of the Republican committees will be delivered at the Coliseum in the evening.

Peoria and Indianapolis are the other important stops on the tour, although a number of brief addresses will be made at various places in Indiana. At Peoria Mr. Roosevelt will be the guest of the Spalding Council, Knights of Columbus, on October 12th, and the arrangements in Indiana are under the direction of Senator Beveridge and the Republican State Committee. Mr. Roosevelt will return to New York on the evening of Friday, October 14th.

FAISON FLAYS GEORGE BUTLER

First of Joint Debates in Third Congressional District at Wallace eYsterday—Voters From Three Counties Present—The Issues.

(Special Star Telegraph.)

Wallace, N. C., Sept. 30.—It was a great victory for Democracy. Dr. John M. Faison the Democratic nominee for Congress and Maj. Geo. E. Butler, the Republican nominee, met at Wallace today and opened their joint canvass.

There was a large and enthusiastic crowd of Democrats and Republicans from Duplin, Sampson and Pender counties who were especially interested in the opening speeches of this campaign. The prominent postmasters of the section were very noticeable including Wilmington's some being Duncanites who were eager to see if "Mary Ann's" brother George could make good. They left greatly disappointed.

Dr. Faison, who is at home in joint debate, discussed in an able manner the great principles of the Democratic party in the leading speech sending home the truth into the hearts of both his Republican and Democratic hearers which will bring forth much fruit in November. There were many Republicans from Sampson present who well knew the record of the Butlers and Dr. Faison's characteristic review of "Mary Ann" and George's public record in State and county affairs struck home as they well remembered how these leaders had betrayed them so many times as Alliance men, Populists and later as Republicans. He pointed out the coming of the glad day of Democratic victory in the west, northwest and north which to the South had and would always remain true. Mr. Butler was completely routed and admitted that he had not said his speech in the last of his rejoinder. Dr. Faison riddled Mr. Butler on the tariff as a friend of the farmer and read from the National Republican hand book that the Republican committee of the Senate so stated. Dr. Faison paid his compliments to Mr. Butler's public record as county attorney and the News-Despatch, his organ as the dear friend of the white children of the State in which garb he parades and in the comparison of their two county records.

Dr. Faison grilled Mr. Butler and his Republican friends from Sampson who had suffered much, as they knew that George Butler was no match for Dr. Faison. This was apparent to Mr. Butler's warmest friends and they left downcast. Dr. Faison made friends and votes and his majority will increase along with his splendid campaign which he is making for Democracy in the Third district. They speak at Warsaw Saturday.

New York, Sept. 30.—Nicholas Monsarrat, of Columbus, Ohio, president of the Kanawha & Michigan Railroad, died suddenly in this city today.

VANDERBILT RACE AT MINEOLA TODAY

Thousands Gather For Feature Automobile Event of the Season.

FAMOUS DRIVERS TAKE PART

Thirty-one Cars Will Participate at Speed Carnival—Big Prizes Offered the Winners—Features.

Mineola, N. Y., Sept. 30.—The Vanderbilt cup race was ushered in early tonight with the time honored accompaniment of horns and weird and fantastic glittering of 10,000 spectral motors churning their way through sleeping villages like giant fire flies.

Althuogh the six hour thrill provided for by the race itself will not begin until daylight, the Hegira began soon after the theatres had closed and continued throughout the night. From their anchorages outside Broadway restaurants, limosines, touring cars and runabouts, big cars, little cars and elephantine seeing New York moving vans, loaded down with human freight, all were making their way towards the same objective point.

Many other persons came by train, on foot and in farm wagons and in rigs.

The race, which starts at dawn, is a triple event consisting of the Vanderbilt cup contest in which 31 cars are to circle the course 22 times; the Whealy Hills contest in which nine cars are to cover the course 15 times, and the Massapequa contest, in which six cars must make the circuit ten times.

The course for the Vanderbilt cup contest is the same as last year, the circuit being 12.64 miles in extent, and the race will be 22 laps, of 278.08 miles, the same as last Fall. The circuit consists of the Motor parkway, Messapequa road and Old Country road. Outside the parkway, which has a special racing surface, the road are broad and have been well oiled. There are only four turns, which have been banked so that they can be taken at speed.

The world's most prominent and daring drivers are represented in the entry list for the Vanderbilt cup race this year and for the past two weeks have been preparing and turning up their machines. Unless there are one or more eleventh hour withdrawals, 18 and possibly 20 cars will start in the mad dash around the 22-lap circuit in an attempt to win the coveted silver trophy emblematic of the auto championship. The majority of the cars named to compete are of American manufacture, the percentage of foreign-built autos being considerably smaller than in previous years.

George Robertson, who won the Vanderbilt cup two years ago, will drive a Benz car in the big race. The other members of the Benz team will be Edward A. Hearne and David Bruce-Brown. Harry F. Grant, winner of last year's race, will pilot an Alco. The Pope-Hartford team will consist of Fleming and Dingley; the Harmon team, Harroun and Dawson; the National team, Aitken and Livingstone; the Simplex team, Mitchell and Beardsley; the Marquette-Buick team, Louis Chevrolet, Arthur Chevrolet and Robert Burman. The Hackson car, one of the new entrants in the cup contests, will be driven by E. F. Scheifler, who has never appeared in the East before, but who has a reputation in the West for skill and daring. Among the other cars entered for the cup contest are the Apperson, with Harris Hanshue as driver, and the Lazier, with Ralph Mulford.

YOUNG BRINGS CHARGES.

In Rebuttal to Those of Maynard—Primary Election Inquiry.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 30.—The introduction by William A. Young of testimony in rebuttal of sweeping charges of illegal voting in Norfolk city brought by Congressman H. L. Maynard, whom Young appeared to have defeated by 45 votes, and the adjournment of the committee to Portsmouth to hear testimony in proof of alleged fraud in that city, were today's features of the investigation now being made into the recent second district Democratic Congressional primary.

Answering the supplemental charge of Maynard that 512 men were voted in Norfolk who had not paid their poll taxes, Young put on the stand City Treasurer B. G. Tunstall, of Norfolk, who testified that all but 20 of the 512 had properly paid their taxes and Young promised to account for the 20 later. Testimony adduced by Young offset several cases of alleged illegal voting brought out by citigens' counsel.

ROOSEVELT OPENS STATE CAMPAIGN

Fires First Gun For Progressives Before National Republican League.

STIMSON AND THE PLATFORM

Received Praise From the Ex-President—Criticised the Democratic Convention Held at Rochester N. Y.

New York, Sept. 30.—Theodore Roosevelt addressing the National Republican League in session at Carnegie Hall today, delivered his first speech of the State campaign.

Praising the platform and Henry L. Stimson, the Republican nominee for Governor, he compared the Republican State convention with the Democratic convention, now being held at Rochester, and on the strength of his comparison, said he felt that the Republicans had the right to appeal to every decent citizen in the State, without regard to party affiliations, to vote their way. The Saratoga gathering he styled a "people's convention" free from the influence of special interests.

John Hayes Hammond, as president of the league, introduced the ex-President.

Col. Roosevelt said: "I am here to report progress. We have just held the Republican State convention at Saratoga. There never has been held in the State of New York a convention that was more methodical—a people's convention—not a lobbyist, not a representative of a single great special interest exercised a finger's weight influence in that convention. That convention represented absolutely the opinions, the reasoned convictions and belief of the plain, every day men who make up the rank and file of the Republican party in the State of New York; and it represented equally the reasoned faith of the independent voters.

"Three points, three essential points, were made in our platform of principles—the three points upon which the contest this Fall in New York is to be waged. In the first place: That we stand, not timidly, not half way, but aggressively for honesty in the public and in business life.

"In the next place: That we stand for government efficiency.

"And in the third place: That we stand for the right of the people to control themselves, and not to be controlled by someone else.

"Those are in sum, the three essential points of our platform.

"Now, our words counted only insofar as they were made good by our deeds; and we ask that our words be tested by our deeds; for upon that platform we place a man whose whole life has made him a typical exemplar of that public servant who is absolutely efficient, absolutely fearless, absolutely honest and in the highest and best sense, the servant as well as the leader of the people. That is what our action was. That is what our platform is. And that is the kind of man that our candidate, Harry Stimson, is.

"Now the voters of this State will have to choose between that on the one side and on the other side, this—(here Mr. Roosevelt held aloft a newspaper clipping)—which I shall now describe to you in the language of one of our most envenomed foes, a leading representative of the Wall Street Democracy, the New York Times of this morning, describing the Democratic convention now sitting."

The editorial as read by Mr. Roosevelt stated in effect that Murphy and Tammany were in unquestioned control of the Democratic convention that back of Murphy's control was rumor of strange and sinister influence and that a brick could not be thrown in any direction at Rochester without hitting some lobbyist or railroad attorney. Continuing, Mr. Roosevelt said:

"I feel we have the right to appeal to every decent citizen in this State without regard to party, so long as he is a good American and an upright and honest and a far-seeing man, he stands with us at the polls, and to put Harry Stimson in the governor's chair at Albany."

When Col. Roosevelt had finished speaking the convention adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning when a platform will be adopted. Tomorrow night there will be a banquet at the Hotel Astor at which President Taft will be the principal speaker.

GOOD ROADS CONVENTION.

Resolutions Adopted and National Committee Appointed.

St. Louis, Sept. 30.—Resolutions were adopted and a national committee for 1911 was named at the closing session of the third national good roads convention here this morning. The national committee is again headed by George C. Diehl, of Buffalo, N. Y.

State highway commissions, according to the resolution, are the most effective in making good roads, and every State is asked to appoint such a board.

Statute labor on roads is condemned, and it is recommended that all highway taxes be paid in cash.

It is recommended that every State has a law requiring all vehicles to carry lights at night.

ALL STATE LEAGUE PROPOSED

Wilmington Baseball Association, Done With Eastern Carolin League, Wants an All-State League —Writes Greensboro.

Local baseball fans will read with interest the following from Thursday's Greensboro Daily News:

"An effort is on foot, and is being agitated from Wilmington, for the organization of an "All-State Baseball League" to encompass a wide circuit, composed of Charlotte, Greensboro, Winston-Salem, Durham, Raleigh and Wilmington. A letter has been received by the president of the Greensboro Baseball association, outlining the proposition. No action has yet been taken regarding the matter. Discussing the merits of such league, the letter, under date of September 21, from the Wilmington Baseball association says:

"'We believe such an organization will prove exceedingly interesting, and will doubtless by far be the best circuit that can be formed in either of the Carolinas. We have practically supported the Eastern Carolina league, also having a tailend team the first of the season, yet our attendance has been exceedingly good. We are through with the Eastern Carolina league. It is too small a proposition for a town of this size to enter from the simple fact that there is but little enthusiasm among our citizens, as we are in a district where there are so many small towns. We shall be glad to hear from you giving your views relative to the formation of such a league, and we will be glad to have a meeting at no distant date of representatives of the cities above named.'

"This makes the third proposition since the closing of the Carolina league which would effect the clubs now composing that league. The suggestion was first made that an exclusive North Carolina league be formed composed of Durham, Greensboro, Winston, Salisbury and Charlotte and probably one other town. No conclusive action has been taken in regard to this proposition although it was ocnsidered rather seriously by the parties interested. The proposition was met by the counter proposition that to organize such a league would be unfair to the South Carolina towns. Since the report has been given out that Anderson will not again support the Carolina league, it would seem that there would be no objection among the other South Carolina towns to the action that might be taken with reference to the organization of the leagues proposed.

"Another proposition has been made to the effect that a Virginia-Carolina league be formed, the towns closest by means of railway facilities to the border line between the two states to participate and compose this league. It is understood that the Virginia league bears an unfavorable attitude to Danville and Roanoke. With these two towns and another Virginia town, in conjunctin with the three North Carolina towns, Greensboro on the list the Virginia-Carolina league has been proposed.

"The last proposition coming from Wilmington will probably be considered this week by the Greensboro Baseball association.'

Also the game to be played with Wake Forest in Raleigh, October 15, has been cancelled, and a game secured with them for November 19th.

The squad is put through hard, steady practice each afternoon and is rapidly developing into an efficient football machine. Coach Green is well pleased with the showing made by his men and believes that A. & M. will be victorious over Georgetown University in the approaching game between the "Hilltoppers" and the "Farmers."

ONE-SIDED BALL GAME.

Clarkton and Bladenboro Play a Game at Bladenboro Yesterday.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Bladenboro, N. C., Sept. 30.—A very one-sided game of baseball was played today between Clarkton and Bladenboro High School on the latter's diamond, the score being 13 to 4 in favor of Clarkton. The features were the excellent playing of Clarence Clark an ex-player of Greenville League, and Snowden Singletray, of the University, and several other old players being the only four of the Clarkton school boys in the game. The defeat was due to the errors and poor support. Clarkton has nothing to crow about, victories being equally divided after them playing their league and college men.

As soon as the club is completed, the vote coupon calling for the extra bonus votes will be mailed to the contestant, and they may hold same as long as they desire.

About Subscriptions.

Contestants should turn subscriptions into the Contest Department as soon after receiving as convenient, in order to avoid complaints of the subscribers, and also that they may be gaining a five-vote coupon from each subscriber daily.

Contestants Not Limited.

A young lady is not limited to securing one club on this offer, but may secure as many as posible. If one is completed the contestant should try for another and as soon as that is completed try on the third, etc.

Young Woman's Contest.

Contest No. 1 is for young women, married or single, and has been divided into six districts so that all of the contestants will not be working against each other.

In this contest the Star is offering four Grand Prizes, and 24 district prizes, consisting of $500.00 in cash, a handsome upright piano, two trips to Cuba, with all expenses, a Shetland Pony, Harness and Trap, six Handsome Diamond Rings, Six Turkish Rockers, Six Gold Watches and Six $25.00 Bank Accounts.

The young woman, city or country, who has the largest number of votes to her credit at the close of the contest will be awarded the $500.00 in cash. The second highest will be awarded the Piano. Third highest will receive the Trips to Cuba, selecting her own companion to accompany her, and the fourth highest will receive a Shetland Pony and complete outfit.

Should the second highest contestant, however, prefer the trips or the Pony to her Piano, she would be allowed the privilege of choosing her prize, as the largest numbers of votes of course, have first choice of the prizes.

Twenty-four District Prizes.

After the Four Grand Prizes have been awarded there will be 24 district prizes divided evenly among the six districts making four prizes sure to go to each of the six districts into which this contest has been divided.

A coupon good for five votes appears daily in the Morning Star, and of these a young woman may gather as many as she possibly can daily, and have her friends gather them for her, and if she sends them into the office before the date at the bottom has expired, they will each one count for five votes to her credit.

The nomination blanks which also appear daily, are to be used for nominating only, and only one will be credited to each contestant. These nominating blanks count for 2,000 votes, and enable the young woman to make a good start when she first enters the contest.

How Votes Are Secured.

Contestants and their friends may gather as many of the ten vote daily ballots as they can possibly secure, each one placing the candidate's names just that much nearer the Grand Prizes.

Another way to secure votes is to gather subscriptions to the Morning Star. Votes will be allowed on new subscriptions, on arrearges, and also on renewal of subscriptions.

Year's Subscription 3,000 Votes.

A year's subscription to the Morning Star is $6.00 and on that subscription 3,000 votes will be given on a new subscriber. The schedule on four months and six months subscriptions is also fully outlined in today's announcement. A full list of premiums, the schedule of votes, the distribution of the prizes, in fact every detail pertaining to the contest is fully explained in the full page announcement today.

Now is the time to enter the contest, for an early start is half the battle. Send in your name or that of your friend at once to the Contest Manager of the Morning Star, and get the contest fully explained, and the winning will be easy.

Who May Enter Contest.

Any young woman, married or single, residing in Wilmington or the States of North or South Carolina, is eligible to compete in this contest. A young woman does not have to be a subscriber to the paper in order to enter. All that is necessary is to send in the name and address, and assurance that the person entering is in good standing.

No relative or anyone connected with the Star office will be allowed as a contestant.

Contest No. 2—For Boys.

The Star has also put on a contest affording the hustling boys of its territory a chance to put in their spare time during the next few weeks before school opens to win a handsome prize for their efforts.

A coupon appears daily for the boys' contest, and each one of the votes counts for five, and the young man may secure as many of these as he possibly can get together. His friends may gather them and send them in for him, just so they are sent in before the date at the bottom has expired. They will count to the young man's credit for five votes each.

This contest is entirely separate from the contest for young women which has just been inaugurated, but the same schedule of votes will be used for both contests. That is 3,000 votes on a new yearly subscription, 1,000 votes on a new six months subscription, and 400 votes on a new four months subscription.

There will be three prizes for the young men in the city of Wilmington, and three prizes for young men outside of the city of Wilmington, so in that manner this contest has been divided into two districts. The first prize for each district for the young men will be $50.00 each in cash. The second prize for each of the two districts will be handsome gold watches, and the third prizes for each of the two districts will be smaller watches.

A young man may send in one of the nomination blanks, thereby starting his name in the paper with 2,000 votes, and he may gather as many of the five vote coupons as he can possibly secure. Besides that he may secure subscriptions to the Morning Star, and secure large number of votes on each one brought in.

Contest In Infancy.

The count today shows that contestants in every district have made substantial gains but the contest has really just begun and a contestant should not feel discouraged because one has a few votes more than he or she. With very little effort the contestant farthest down the list could place his or her name at the top if they would just realize that they have an equal chance to win the $500, or one of the many other prizes and that they might just as well be awarded the prize as to have it awarded to some one else who possibly did a few hours more work than they did. If any contestant desires further information or wants the contest explained in any manner it will be attended to as soon as the contest department is notified.

DUPED IN CAROLINA LANDS.

Sues for $12,000 Paid For Timber Lands by False Representation.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 30.—Alleging that they were induced to buy timber lands in North Carolina through false representations and though assured the title was clear and no squatters were living on it, the land was at the time and has since been in dispute by other claimants who have been in possession, William J. Knupp, Otis S. Brown and others, of Warren, Penn., entered suit in equity in the United States court here today against Oliver D. Jackson of Norfolk and Ohio, and others asking that the defendants be ordered to deliver to the plaintiffs $12,000 claime to have been paid on the lands, together with $2,000 additional expenses incurred by the plaintiffs in visiting Norfolk and in fighting a suit in the United States court in the Western district of Pennsylvania. The bill also asks that the defendants be restrained from further prosecuting the case in the courts of the Western district of Pennsylvania until the action of the plaintiffs is settled.

Senatorial Nomination Contested in Columbus—General Notes.

(Special Star Correspondent.)

Whiteville, Sept. 30.—It is reported that the State Executive Committee will be called on to settle another political contest, that of the Senatorial nomination in this district. It will be remembered that the convention nominated Hon. J. A. Brown, of Chadburn, but Hon. Donald McRackan, of Whiteville, protested against the manner in which the nomination was made, claiming that it was not in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Democratic party, and that he (McRackan) should have received the nomination. There is a report on the streets that Mr. McRackan will appeal to the Democratic State Executive Committee, and ask that Mr. Brown's nomination be set aside and that he be declared the candidate of his party. There is a good deal of feeling manifested, but our people, and doubtless will Messrs. Brown and McRackan also, abide by any decision made by the State Committee, as did Messrs. Godwin and Clark in the Congressional contest.

Many farmers are selling their cotton in the seed as fast as it is picked. They get five and a half cents per pound, which is equivalent to 14 cents for lint, and the regulation price for the seed. Besides cotton is now green and weighs much heavier than when allowed to dry. But from what your correspondent can learn, the bulk of farmers will hold their cotton for an advance in price.

There seems to be a warm contest over the successor for State Auditor Dixon. Hon. Homer Lyon, chairman of this district, received several telegrams yesterday morning before he got out of bed asking his support. Mr. Lyon was seen by the Star reporter this morning, and said if the committee decided the matter, he had not made up his mind whom he would support, but the impression is that Mr. Lyon will give his vote to Maj. Hale, as he belongs to Mr. Lyon's district and he is a firm believer in standing by home folks when they are loyal Democrats.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

Charlotte Physician Died in Paroxysm of Asthma.

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 30.—Dr. Chas. F. Brem, one of the best known and most popular citizens of Charlotte, was found dead in his room in the Harty Building, No. 211 1-2 North o'clock. Death had resulted in all probability from a severe attack of coughing and asthma from which the deceased had suffered for many years. The body was discovered by a waiter from Graham's Cafe, where Dr. Brem boarded, to ascertain if the doctor was ill or if any thing was the matter with him, uneasiness being caused by the fact that Dr. Brem did not go to breakfast and until that time had not appeared for luncheon. The waiter knocked on the door and not getting a response finally climbed to the transom and saw the doctor lying across the bed. The negro immediately gave the alarm, and Mr. Walter Brem, the brother of the deceased, and a number of friends, were quickly at the room.

Dr. Brem was 64 years old. He was a native of Charlotte and had lived here practically all of his life with the exception of the time he was in college and during the civil war, during which he served with distinction. He was a graduate of Bellevue Medical College at New York and practiced medicine for a number of years in this city, quitting the practice to engage in the insurance business. Dr. Brem was a man of fine intellect, strong character and a most attractive personality. He won friends easily and held them just as easily. Probably no man in Charlotte numbered among his acquaintances a larger number of true friends than did Dr. Brem.

Dr. Brem is survived by a brother and a sister, Mr. Walter Brem of this city, and Miss Florence Brem, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

PREVENT A NATIONAL WASTE.

Need for Organized Forest Fire Protection Among Private Owners.

Washington, October 1.—One of the lesons which will finally be drawn from the trying experience of the present forest fire season, in the belief of officials of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, is the need of wider organization among private owners of timber to safeguard their holdings.

It is pointed out that already in the Northwest, both on the Pacific Coast and in Montana and Idaho, timberland owners have formed themselves into associations which assess the members on an acreage basis and thus meet the cost of maintaining a regular patrol and fire-fighting organization. Only by getting together can private owners usually assure themselves protection, for fire is no respecter of boundary lines and the man who undertakes to keep it out of his timber will want it kept out of his neighbor's too. Wherever possible the Government's forest officers cooperate with the force put in the field by the associations, so that the employees of the Government and those of the private owners are handled practically as a unit in fighting the common enemy.

This co-operation is advantageous to both sides. Protection of the National Forests necessarily carries with it good deal of protection of adjoining or interior holdings. If the private owners would everywhere shoulder their reasonable share of the burden, the public would gain both through more general forest conservation and through relief from the necessity of paying for the protection of private timber in order to protect its own.

ASKS REDRESS FOR ASSAULT.

American Correspondent Was Attacked During Berlin Strike.

Berlin, Sept. 30.—Ambassador Hill, acting upon instructions from the State Department at Washington, called at the foreign office today and requested an inquiry into the affair and proper official redress for the wanton assault made by the police upon Frederick W. Wile, the correspondent of the New York Times, during the coal strikers rioting last Sunday night. In company with the correspondents of the Renter Telegram Company, the New York World and the New York Sun, Mr. Wile, engaged in his duties, was watching the police and rioters from a motor car when the party were set upon by the police and painfully injured. Seemingly without provocation the police charged with sabres and the news gatherers were saved from further injury only by flight to the nearest first aid station.

Herr Von Jagow, president of the Berlin police, in answering the complaint and appeal for redress from the English and American journalists declined to take action against the officers who made the attack. He says the correspondents acted courageously, but against the police regulations in entering a riotous crowd. Herr Von Jagow added that he had convinced himself from personal observation that all the policemen acted with praiseworthy energy and coolheadedness during the riots. He expressed lively regret, nowever, for the trouble with the newspaper men.

The British embassy, on behalf of the English newspaper men attacked, also has lodged a protest with the foreign office and demanded a thorough inquiry.

Not a sword was drawn or a revolver fired in the strike center of the Moabit district this evening.

CABINET SESSIONS END.

Saving of $10,000,000 in War Department Appropriations.

Washington, Sept. 30.—President Taft's "house party," at which his cabinet advisers were guests, broke up today and the executive's official family moved their baggage away from the White House.

The President himself will quit the White House tomorrow, leaving at 10 A. M. for New York City, where he is to make his first political speech of the campaign tomorrow night before the League of Republican Clubs at a banquet at the Hotel Astor.

A saving of nearly $10,000,000 will be made in the appropriations for the War Department as a result of the pruning of the estimates by the cabinet. The total appropriation for the current fiscal year amounts to $146,000,000, while the estimates for the next fiscal year will aggregate about $137,000,000.

The great saving will be in river and harbor appropriations. For the present year these aggregated $49,381,000 while the estimate provided for an expenditure of only $25,000,000.

ADVANCE IN COTTON MARKET.

Yesterday Was Day of Activity—Bulls Certain of Small Crop.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Sept. 30.—Advantage was taken of this unexpected advance by many of the recent buyers to sell freely, taking profits on a large scale during the morning. In the afternoon advices were received from Manchester that the spinners and the operatives had failed to come to any agreement and that unless the government interferred a lockout on Monday was more than probable. This led to selling by spot houses against cotton they had bought in the South during the past three days, under which the market sold off 10 to 12 points from the highest. The bulls are very certain of small crops, estimated from the government figures, but there is a tendency to raise estimates of the Texas crop to above 3 1-4 million bales, among cotton people. A rather better market is expected before the bureau report on Monday.

BIG NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE.

Cartoonists to Arrange Tour of the Continent—The Purpose.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 1.—W. C. Morris of the Spokanesman-Review will enter into correspondenc with cartoonists of 150 prominent journals in as many cities in the United States and Canada, with the view to arranging a tour of the continent, so planned that every newspaper on the circuit will have the services of each man some time during the 12 months required to complete the journey. Every State, territory and province in America is to be visited.

"While the present plan is to treat only National subjects as developed in the news," Mr. Morris said in outlining the undertaking, "it is probable that the visiting cartoonists will also interpret the leading state or local stories in the city to which he is assigned at the time. Other features may be added.

"If the idea 'takes' with the cartoonists of the country, the plan will be submitted to owners and managing editors of from 100 to 150 journals, to be selected by a committee. It is planned to give one newspaper in each city on the circuit the exclusive services of every man assigned there, in addition to a daily travel cartoon by its own artist, during the progress of the tour.

"The primary purpose is to make the trip one of education and inspiration familiarize the pen and ink men with all parts of the continent and study the makers of its history; also to acquaint the people with the work of Ameica's foremost cartoonisis.

"Details of itineraries, transportation, expense, and the management of the tour from a central office, probably located in Chicago, will have to be worked out; but there is ample time to do that, as the tour will nor begin until next Summer, unless it is decided by a majority of newspapers to start earlier in 1911."

ALL UNSTRUNG

Many Wilmington People Suffer from Nervous Troubles and Don't Know Why.

Thousands of cases of kidney trouble show few outward symptoms except nervousness, depression, languor irritability and an inclination to worry over trifles. It is generally due to the poisonous action of uric acid on blood and nerves, and can't be cured except by curing the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills cure these ills by curing the kidneys. Wilmington women are learning it. Here's a local case.

Mrs. J. E. Marshburn, 516 Castle St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I suffered a great deal from backache and pains through my loins. Headaches were common and the kidney secretions were unnatural. Saturday, October 1, 1910.

The Charleston News and Courier intimates that "Sunny Jim" was sent to grass to gratify "the Colonel's whim." Well, Sunny Jim had a whimper coming to him, anyhow.

A St. Louis man who has been married five times is being sued for divorce by his fifth wife. Of course, a man who has been up against it five times is baldheaded. The man's newspaper photograph shows that.

Of course, the President hitched on to Roosevelt's plans for conciliation in New York but he overlooked the fact that Roosevelt's idea of conciliation was to "big stick" the crowd which stood in the Rough Rider's way.

Lest we forget, the Savannah Morning News reminds us that three is to be a State election in Georgia next week. It is hardly necessary to state that the result will be another reason why Tom Watson is satisfied the whole counrty in plunging right on down where it will get the brimestone treatment.

"Slippery Jim," instead of coming to North Carolina soon to indulge in political persuasion, could "make Rome howl" by catering to the hilariousness of North Carolinians by lecturing on "Bruises from the Bruiser With the Big Stick," or, "How I Hicked Out of Swatsville After the Swatting." Ah, give us something about "The Roughness of the Rough Rider," and all will be forgiven.

Sherman will hardly be able to set the woods afire when he comes to North Carolina to make speeches to North Carolina-loving Tar Heels. If he couldn't win votes at home to down Teddy he will hardly win votes here to down North Carolina so he can saddle her with Butlerism. Sherman will be entirely too far from home where he is down and out as a result of having come in too close contact with the "Big Stick" in the hands of the "Big Noise."

Mrs. Richard LeGalleinne, wife of the rhymster, is suing Dick for a divorce because he insists on writing poetry and leaves her to make a living for herself and six-year old child. She is trimming hats and getting along quite well, but she is satisfied that there is considerable incompatibility of temperament between a hat trimmer and a versifier. Of course, we are to presume that the main trouble is that Poet LeGallienne doesn't bring anything home Saturday nights. Probably he writes "figitive verse" and sooner or later will become a fugitive from justice.

When the Republican party ruled North Carolina in reconstruction days the people moaned because of a whole lot of devilry, including swiping of the school fund. When Butlerism and Republicanism was administered in a double dose, the people moaned and groaned over scandals and disgraces ad nauseam. The "respectable Republican party" (with guarded and circumspect considerations of the allegation) now promises lots of schooling which will call for a great big school fund. If there were any danger that the "Respectable" will carry the State, the school fund should have a guardian appointed for it. School money always did look good to the old school Republicans and a mere promise of respectability is no guarantee that any educational fund will be safe lying around loose. Pesky precedents preclude presumption that purloining proclivities are preventable by mere promises.

PUBLICITY LIEUTENANT.

A newspaper man is an indispensible adjunct to any campaign headquarters, and Democratic State Chairman A. H. Eller, has demonstrated that he has an eye for business in that particular. The State Chairman recognizes the value of campaign publicity and accordingly has made a practical newspaper man one of his lieutenants for this campaign against Butlerism and tariffism. As to his selection, the Raleigh Evening Times remarks:

"The announcement is made by State Chairman Eller that Mr. R. F. Beasley of Monroe, will be with Democratic headquarters from October 4 until the election. He will have charge of the publicity matter of the campaign, writing and editing the literature, etc. He will also assist in the correspondence and with his counsel aid the chairman in the general work of the committee. Mr. Beasley will prove a valuable man at state headquarters. He is editor of the Monroe Journal and hasn't a superior in the State as a newspaper man. He is able and clear in thought, concise in expresion and sound in the principles of democracy."

The Evening Times has said it well. Editor Beasley is a capital man for the work he has in hand. He is not only one of the State's most gifted young newspaper writers but his ability is fortified by a political faith that is well grounded and strong. Chairman Eller's newspaer lieutenant is a bright and scholarly gentleman, and his qualifications are heightened by a sturdy character and earnestness of purpose that makes his selection an unexceptoinably good one. Political publicity from Democratic headquarters is in good and safe hands.

Chairman Eller knows his business and he is doing big work for North Carolina when he is setting his pegs and carrying out his plans to keep the State in the hands of her patriotic sons—loyal Carolinians who are devoted to the traditions of North Carolina and who seek to preserve her honor and promote the best interests of a State that is making marvellous progress in the hands of her intelligent citizenship.

NOTABLE DEMOCRATIC RECRUIT.

It is generally suspected that the School Fund will vote the Democratic ticket November 8th. When the original School Fund was an orphan it got lost for good at a time when the Republican party did not claim to be "respectable" and was careless and reckless in handing "dough.'

The original School Fund got its start in Reconstruction Days and never stopped till it was clean gone. It was accompanied by Republicans and it stayed with them. It got dissipated in a far-off land and so it was that the prodigal never returned home to make its big brother mad by causing the fatted calf to be killed for the original hobo and primal degnerate.

The present School Fund, now full grown, was brought up under a Democratic guardianship. It is educated and has read the interesting but sad history of the life of the original School Fund, which fell by the wayside, was tenderly picked up by thieves, carried to an Inn and perhaps spent in riotous living when thre was no kick against High Prices.

It is extremely gratifying to note that the School Fund, in deciding to vote to take care of itself, manifests the sententiousness of the "burnt child" and exhibits the wisdom of the muffle-eared owl which knows when to take the big woods in day time as a precaution absolutely necessary to be exercised as a guarantee of its safety.

BOSSISM VS. BOSSISM.

Roosevelt won at Saratoga on the issue of bossism in the Republican ranks. His personality also was taken into consideration. However his personality and anti-bossism will not be the issue upon which he will have to face the Democracy from now till the 8th of November. The issues he will have to face now are Rooseveltism and the Republicanism that is committed to the special interests and trusts which break into the pockets of the people with the protective tariff jimmy furnished them by Republicanism.

A change of bosses may or may not be beneficial to the Republican party in New York, but the Roosevelt platform adopted at Saratoga is committed to the special interests as might have been expected, for it approves the Aldrich fariff which was not a revision in the interest of the people. Rooseveltism promises no relief to consumers, for Roosevelt is a standpatter, the best evidence of which is that he plays shut-mouth on the one issue which so deeply concerns the people, and vents platitudes which he conceives will distract the attention of the people.

The black and white record which clinches Roosevelt's standpatism is the tariff plank of the Saratoga platform, which was not "progressive" but reactionary. Roosevelt had it in his power to write into that platform a promise of relief to tariff-ridden consumers, but he didn't. Therefore, New York Republicanism has undergone no change except in bossism.

When an Insurgent State Convention frames a platform or Col Roosevelt makes a speech, Col. Bryan must blame himself for not patenting his ideas and philosophies.

THE SILENT TREATMENT AT HOME.

The "silent treatment," administered a few days ago to a West Point professor by the cadets, consists of remaining perfectly silent in the presence of one who is persona non grata. Before Colonel Roosevelt seizes on the "silent treatment" as a new philosaphy, we propose to get ahead of him and suggest to the married ladies that they should not hesitate to practice it when they wish temporarily to dissolve diplomatic relations with the old man. To be greeted with a silence that is sepulchral and mysterious will take all the old duffer's nerve away from him, for it will keep him guessing whether he is treading around the crater of a sleeping volcano or is about to be swallowed up by a fissure which is liable to open under his feet at any moment. Don't even "cheep" when hubby shows up unseemly and he will commence getting good, because he can't understand profound silence administered in a philosophical manner.

We suggest this in the interest of many of our lady friends, as it will save them some over-exertion in reading the old man a lesson containing 3,999 more words than are to be found in Webster's unabridged dictionary. Masculine malefactors and incorrigible husbands certainly will take the hint when they go up against a silence so strange that they can't understand what in the world it means. We are for the "silent treatment" instead of a multiplicity of words that will bring on more talk and then some more.

Married ladies should organize "silent treatment" clubs so they can get the philosophy down fine. We are confident that a few doses of ominous silence will cause the old man to begin to subsidize his wife and report home early at night with all kinds of bribes well calculated to enable him to find out "where he is at." We do not hesitate to express belief in silence as the most approved means of letting the alleged head of the house know that he can't be stood for unless he adopts a platform perfectly agreeable to the boss with the feather duster.

Teddy the Tetrarch captured the Whole Guard—"frazzle" and all.

Some men live to be famous and then live long enough to live it down.

Can Vice-President Sherman "come back" from under what has been put on him?

An optimist is a man who thinks his town a great place in spite of the United States census.

It is haridy true that a girl dressed in a hobble-skirt will have considerable difficulty in getting over a bad cold.

Pittsburg boasts of being the best lighted city in America. Of course, Pitsburg should be well lighted so strangers can see Pittsburgers in time to give them the dodge.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Senator Gore seems to have gored the Republican party while in North carolina last week.—Greenville (S.C.) Piedmont.

The boll bug is the latest cotton pest. Reading it hurriedly, your impression is that it is a species of bull dog gone awry.—Atlanta Journal.

According to the Colonel, a boss drives and a leader leads. But what are we to call the fellow who rides? The Colonel belongs in the rider class. —Savannah News.

When the statement is made that this year's State fair will eclipse all previous efforts you may put it down as straight facts and not the work of a versatile press agent. The bookings of space for new exhibitors are incontrovertible facts.—Raleigh Times.

The Bond Syndicate feels pretty certain that as Butler engineered a suit against his own State while he was Senator, he is the man to deal with, and so, as the Wilkesboro Chronicle says: "The holders of the fraudulent reconstruction State bonds are sending a lot of literature into the State since Butler, their attorney, took charge of the Republican party."—Raleigh News and Observer.

"Where ignorance is bliss," etc. In Pennsylvania a day or two ago the judge asked an alien who wanted to become a citizen: 'Who is the President of the United States?" "William Howard Taft," replied the applicant promptly. "And who is Theodore Roosevelt?" was the next question. "Never heard of Roosevelt, your honor, but from the name he must be a Dutchman," came the reply. The applicant got his papers.—Savannah News.

The great issue of the American people with the Payne-Aldrich-Cannon reactionaries on the tariff was made up while the lion hunter was in Africa. He had not the least share in the origin and development of the mighty revolution now in progress. No matter, then, how the war of factions in New York may terminate today, the man who sat for seven years in the White House and could see no abuses and iniquities in the Dingley tariff, but lauded it as the prime source of national and individual prosperity, can be no fit leader in this contest. He is a mere cuckoo in the nest of Tariff Reform to suck its eggs. —Philadelphia Record, Sept. 28.

When Col. Roosevelt was President he was on the tenter-hooks of anxiety to go up in an areoplane; at least that was to be inferred from numerous interviews accredited to him. But he was persuaded that, as the country's chief executive, he could not afford to take the risk. Now that he is out of office and once again a private citizen, there is nothing to prevent him from making the flight. He was offered an opportunity the other day to go up, just as high as he pleased. He declined, on the ground that he might be "seeking sensation.' Gee, whiz, Roosevelt seek sensation! Nobody would ever suspect any such thing. He is universally known as the quietest and most unobtrusive man in America. But his feet may be a bit chilly.—Savannah News.

The house-warming reception of the Southern Manufacturers' Club last night was an event in the history of Charlotte, with which for many years this organization has been conspicuously identified. Charlotte would not be the city that it is today but for the Southern Manufacturers' Club. There have been few more important factors in its growth, as well as in the things which render life among its people better worth living. Also the Southern Manufacturers' Club has a membership and exerts an influence extending far beyond this city. It is a widely helpful institution of the progressive South, the Carolinas, of course, especially. It touches New England, and the East as a useful link and force for unity between the two sections. Yesterday, its brightest day—there hardly be anywhere a more truly handsome and attractive club-house than that which the club now owns and completely occupies—brought many and deserved felicitations.—Charlotte Observer.

It strikes us that the movement of so-called "independent" Democrats in Wake to meet and name a separate ticket is ill advised and decidedly injurious to the party's cause in that county. Wake county held a primary and a ticket was named. That should settle the question with every man who believes in the principle of majority rule. Participation in a primary is another way of pledging, by a silent oath of honor, to support the nominees. It is impossible to nominate men who find favor in all eyes. Oftentimes our choice is defeated, but the good Democrat, who treasures highly the fundamental principle of the party, will forget his own personal preferences and give sincere support to candidates named by the majority. The best way to disrupt a party and guarantee defeat is for a lot of men, unwilling to accept the wish of the majority, to bolt. It is our hope that wiser heads may avert the dangers threatened in the proposed action in Wake.—Charlotte Evening News.

THE PROPOSED HIGHWAY.

Route by Hilton Favored by Mr. William Crownstream.

Wilmington, N. C., Sept. 30, 1910.
Editor Morning Star:

I have read with great interest the different opinions in regard to the proposed Wilmington-Charlotte Road, and I take the liberty to express mine.

A highway between the two cities should be made as good and lasting as possible, as it will be cheaper in the long run, even if the first cost is larger than a road made of cheaper material. Then again, it should be made as straight and short as it can be made. Consider if a road is made only one mile longer by a few turns, how many thousands of miles must be traveled unnecessarily by those who have to travel beyond those turns.

If the Wilmington-Charlotte Road were to run through all those places suggested, I am afraid that a map of said road would look something like a drawing of the teeth of a cross-cut saw. It is a hard matter to realize how many miles each of us travel more than is necessary by having to follow those crooked roads we are blessed (?) with. I am certain we could save at least 20 per cent. of our travels by having straight (or as straight as possible) roads, besides the vast amount of land that is worse than wasted by being used for crooked roads. Of course, a few thousand acres of land is not much at present times, but the time is coming when our lawmakers will be compelled to do their sworn duty (or they will have to work for a living) and give us a Stock Law for the entire State, and land will then, by degrees, get so valuable that each foot of ground will be considered.

I think a good plan will be to start the Wilmington-Charlotte Road near the Koch shingle mill across the river from Hilton and then run it from there as straight as possible, to a point opposite Navassa. As it will take a lot of material to make either of the other two proposed roads wide enough for safe travel, I firmly believe it will not require any more material to make the road from the shingle mill to Navassa. As there also will be only one stream to cross besides the rivers, and as the bridges on the road now in use need to be rebuilt before they are safe for heavy travel, while the old railroad bed is (I suppose) without bridges, I think the shingle mill road will be the cheapest.

Furthermore, by building the road where I propose for it to be built, a road could be constructed, connecting the Wilmington-Charlotte road with the Negro Head road, thus giving a lot of people living in portions of Pender, Bladen and Sampson counties a shorter road to Wilmington than they have at present, and, besides, it will open up a piece of land between the rivers, which is about four miles wide and 15 miles long, which is at present nearly without inhabitants. The first seven miles is in New Hanover county and of the whole population there are no whites and less than a dozen colored families. The other eight miles belongs to Pender county and is occupied by less than 30 white families and no colored. Through the center of this portion of the world runs the A. & Y. Railway. The land is partly sandy and partly river marsh and is excellent for the growing of peaches, grapes, rice, etc., so all that is needed to make this desolate place the garden spot of North Carolina is a lot of people with small capital and plenty of brains and energy. But few such people will settle in a place where they will have to travel three miles to get one mile away.

Now, Mr. County Commissioners, members of the Chamber of Commerce, wholesale and retail merchants, in fact, any and every one who is or ought to be interested in a Greater Wilmington, a wealthier New Hanover county, a more prosperous State—let all of us get together and push the thing through. Quit so much of your talk and do some work. Show outsiders that we mean business and they will be interested soon enough and come to live among us. Let us look a little further ahead than the point of our nose, especially when it comes to make such a permanent improvement as the new Wilmington-Charlotte road will be. Remember that by using either of the other two proposed roads across the swamps, it will not be the cause of opening up an acre of land, while the shingle mill road will open up, not acres alone, but many square miles of land now vacant.

There may be politicians who may try to create a muddle in connection with this new road, the same as I understand, they are doing in the Castle Haynes bridge matter, but the day is coming when those cheap politicians will learn that it is bad politics to work against the interests of the masses.

Hoping that this may set someone to thinking, and that the interest of the majority will be considered, I remain,

Yours truly,
WM. CROWNSTREAM.

NEW AUDITOR SWORN IN.

B. F. Dixon, Jr., Assumed Office—Bank Charter—Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 30.—B. F. Dixon, Jr., was duly sworn in this morning at 10 o'clock as auditor for the State of North Carolina, succeeding, by appointment of Governor Kitchin, his lamented father, Major B. F. Dixon, to serve until whoever is elected auditor in the November elections is sworn in next January. The ceremony was in the Supreme Court room and the oath was administered by Chief Justice Walter Clark in the presence of a number of State officers and a group of kinspeople of the young auditor.

A charter was issued today for the Bank of Oak City, Martin county. The capital is $5,000 and the principal incorporator S. J. Everett. It will do a commercial and savings business.

The call is expected to be issued most any time now from State Democratic headquarters here for the assembling of the State committee to select the party candidate for State Auditor to fill out the two years of the unexpired term of the late Major Dixon, from January 1st up to which time B. F. Dixon, Jr., is to serve under appointment from Governor Kitchin. Chairman Eller of the State committee declines to say just when he will issue the call. He is determined, he says, to avoid all semblance of undue or disrespectful haste in this matter. At the same time he realized, he says, that there is very little time now for perfecting the State ticket and rounding up preliminaries of this character preparatory for the election. It is on this account that it is believed that the call will be issued before this week closes, and that the call will be for a meeting sometime during the coming week.

THE TIGERS CASES IN COURT

Chas. Richter Fined for Violating Near-Beer Ordinance—D. N. Stanley Found Not Guilty.—Others Continued.

Recorder Furlong held one of the most important and interesting sessions of his court yesterday in several months, made so on account of the several defendants arrested Thursday night charged either with violating the near-beer ordinance by selling near-beer without license, or the State prohibition law by selling intoxicants. As is invariably the rule when there are a number of whiskey cases on the docket, the court room was well crowded with interested spectators.

Only two cases were investigated, the others being continued until today. Chas. Richter, whose place of business is at Fourth and Harnett streets, was found guilty of the charge of selling near-beer without license and was fined $50 and costs as provided in the ordinance. His counsel, Walter P. Gafford, Esq., gave notice of an appeal to Superior Court, but the appeal was later withdrawn and the amount of the fine and costs paid, this being done, it was said, because the defendant did not care to have the matter hanging over until the next term of Superior Court, and also because he did not want to lose the time that would be required in attendance upon court.

D. N. Stanley, who conducts a grocery store at the southwest corner of Second and Market streets, was found not guilty of the charge of selling whiskey and was released. A. J. Marshall, Esq., appeared for the defendant.

The witnesses against the defendants in both cases were Messrs. Lang Sellers and D. T. Mayer. Sellers testified that he bought near-beer from Richter and Mayer testified that he was with him when the purchase was made. In the case against Stanly both Sellers and Mayer testified that the whiskey, one-half pint, was purchased from A. C. Skipper, a clerk in Stanly's store. A warrant was then issued for Skipper, who was arrested and required to give $200 bond for appearance at trial today. Mayer in his testimony denied that he had been employed by the city to assist Mr. Sellers in working up such cases, claiming that he met Sellers by chance at the several places where it is alleged they secured near-beer and whiskey.

The prosecution was conducted by John D. Bellamy, Jr., Esq., county attorney. The other cases will be called this morning.

John Grady, colored, was in court to answer the charge of obstructing Deputy Sheriff W. H. Howe in the discharge of his duties, the case being sent over from Justice W. F. Jones. It appeared from the evidence that the offense was committed some six months ago when the defendant was arrested on another charge for which he has just completed a sentence of six months on the roads, therefore the Recorder let the defendant off upon payment of the costs.

The case against Boy Mitchell, colored, charged with the larceny of a watch, was again continued on account of the absence of a State's witness.

Failed to Appear to Prosecute.

Yesterday morning Moses Sessoms, colored, swore out a warrant before Justice Bornemann for Nick Nixon, colored, whom he alleged assaulted him with a deadly weapon by threatening to shoot him. Nixon was arrested in the county by Constable Smith. When the case was called for trial Sessoms failed to appear and the action was dismissed and the costs taxed against the prosecutor, who was himself later arrested by Deputy Sheriff Piver and was in the custody of the officer until the amount of the costs was paid.

JOINT CANVASS PROPOSED

Iredell Meares Esq., Invites Congressman H. L. Godwin to a Joint Discussion—The Challenge Is Accepted.

It became known yesterday that Iredell Meares, Esq., Republican nominee for Congress in this District, had invited Congressman Hannibal L. Godwin Democratic nominee for re-election, to a joint discussion of the issues of the campaign, and that the former was awaiting a reply from Mr. Godwin, who has been away from home for several days. A reply was received last night. Mr. Godwin accepting the challenge.

A Star representative having heard on the streets yesterday that Mr. Meares had invited Mr. Godwin to a joint canvass, last night called Mr. Meares over the telephone and in reply to inquiries he admitted the fact. At first he declined to permit the publication of his letter, until he received a reply, but yielded to the request of the reporter, who insisted that it was a matter of public interest. Mr. Meares' letter to Mr. Godwin is as follows:

September 28th, 1910.

Hon. H. L. Godwin, Dunn, N. C.

Dear Sir:—Following the custom between the candidates for Congress of the respective political parties, which has heretofore been observed, I propose a joint discussion between us to be arranged by the chairman of the respective Congressional District Committees.

"If this proposition is accepted by you, I would thank you to designate who you regard as the chairman of the Democratic District Executive Committee, so that Mr. I. B. Tucker, of Whiteville N. C., chairman of the Republican District Executive Committee, may confer with him as to the arrangement. I request this in view of the fact that the recent Democratic Congressional Convention appointed two committees, but I am advised neither has organized, and the old Democratic District Executive Committee has two claimants for chairman.

"Of course, my proposition is not dependent upon the arrangements being made by the chairman of your Executive Committee, but you may select anyone you please to confer with Mr. Tucker.

"I enclose a list of appointments for the forthcoming week, already announced by Mr. Tucker and invite you to join me in a debate at each of the several places pending the more formal arangement for a joint discussion.

"I beg to remain,

Respectfully,

"IREDELL MEARES."

The challenge by Mr. Meares was promptly accepted by Mr. Godwin, upon his return to his home. Mr. Meares having received last night a special delivery letter from Dunn, N. C., in which Mr. Godwin asks his opponent to meet him at Fayetteville tonight and arrange the details of the canvass. Mr. Meares says he will meet Mr. Godwin as requested, and the series of joint debates will be arranged, he has no doubt, without friction. The acceptance of Mr. Godwin is as follows:

"September 30, 1910.

"Hon. Iredell Meares, Wilmington, N. C.

"Dear Sir:—Your favor of the 28th inst., proposing a joint discussion between us, to be arranged by the chairman of the respective Congressional District committees, has been received.

"In reply I desire to state that it will be entirely satisfactory with me to have a joint discussion of the issues involved in the present campaign, and I will be glad to meet you at Fayetteville tomorrow night to arrange the itinerary. The Democratic Congressional Executive Committee has not yet organized and I do not believe that our joint canvass should depend upon an agreement by the chairman of the two committees, I am therefore ready to meet you at any time and place you may designate for the purpose of arranging the time and place for the speaking.

"I note your itinerary through Columbus county, beginning next Monday and continuing through the entire week. I cannot except your proposition to accompany you next week because your circular giving notice of the speakings does not advertise me and no one would have notice that I would be present. Knowing that your time will be taken up next week, I suggest the meeting tomorrow night for the purpose of arranging for the joint canvass and as Fayetteville will be a convenient place to meet, I suggest that we go there tomorrow night; you can go up on the afternoon train, reaching Fayetteville about 9 o'clock. If this is satisfactory, write or wire me and I will meet you there.

"Very truly yours,

"H. L. GODWIN."

PENDER COMMISSIONERS.

Ex-Sheriff Alderman Is Urged for Board in Sister County.

Editor Star:—Realizing that it has been many years since there was any change on the Board of Commissioners for the county of Pender, we feel that it is fair, just and right that there should be changes. Mr. T. J. Armstrong, of Rocky Point, is a new man on the Board and is making quite an efficient member. We notice that since his appointment the Court House square is being improved by the Commissioners in the way of laying concrete walks and other long-felt and necessary improvements.

Union township situate in the northern part of the county and one of the largest therein, has not had representation in a great many years on the board, if at all. We desire to bring before the precinct meeting and convention the name of our ex-Sheriff, W. W. Alderman and feel that all will rally to his support and give him a membership on our next Board of Commissioners.

SUMMARY COURT MARTIAL.

Charges Preferred Against Private R. C. Ruark of W. L. I.

Private R. C. Ruark, of the Wilmington Light Infantry, was tried by summary court martial Thursday night, before Maj. Jos. W. Little, Assistant Commissary General of the North Carolina National Guard, who was designated by Post Commander John VanB. Metts as the presiding officer. Mr. Ruark is charged by Capt. E. A. Metts, commander of the company, with failure to participate in the annual maneuvers of the Coast Artillery Corps, of which the company is a member, at Fort Caswell in August. Testimony was heard both for the prosecution and the defendant. The presiding officer will make up his findings of the evidence introduced and submit the same to Post Commander Metts for his ratification or disapproval. The punishment, if the evidence shows that there should be any, is in the discretion of the presiding officer of the court martial.

Oyster Roast at Lighthouse Will Be Well Attended—Address.

Members of the Y. M. C. A. are looking forward with much interest to the oyster roast which will be given by the association at the Lighhouse, Wrightsville Sound, tonight. Invitations to the supper were sent out several days ago and it was announced last night that 50 acceptances had been received. The Tidewater Power Co. has generously tendered the association the use of one of its suburban cars to convey the party to and from the sound. The car will leave Front and Princess streets at 7:45 o'clock this evening and those who expect to attend are requested to be there at that hour. A feature of the gathering at the Lighthouse will be an address by Rev. Thos. A. Smoot, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, who will speak on "Association Work."

FUNERAL OF MRS. STORM.

Services Held From Residence of Her Son Yesterday.

The funeral of Mrs. Hannah L. Storm, who passed away Thursday night at 9 o'clock, was held at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the residence of her son, Dr. W. E. Storm, No. 316 Ann street, where she had made her home for several years. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr J. M. Wells, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The body was tenderly conveyed to the union station and was taken on the 7 o'clock train to Highland, N. Y., where the interment will take place. Accompanying the remains were Dr. Storm and Mrs. Parker, the latter a sister of Mrs. Storm. The pall-bearers were Messrs. W. H. Green, W. E. Worth, R. C. Cantwell, W. A. Williams, W. L. DeRosset and F. A. Lord.

OYSTERS AT LIGHTHOUSE.

Mr. James Bowden Now in Charge and Serving the Public Well.

The "Lighthouse" at Wrightsville Sound is now in charge of Mr. James Bowden, who is serving to the public oyster roasts and is enjoying a fine patronage. The schedule of cars is very convenient for a visit to the "Lighthouse" any of these fine afternoons while many take the opportunity of going down by private conveyance. Mr. Bowden has been in the business of sea foods all his life and is well prepared to take care of his patrons. The Tidewater Power Company is exceedingly fortunate in securing his services to keep the "Lighthouse" open this Fall and Winter.

Change of Tidewater Schedule.

A new schedule on the suburban line of the Tidewater Power Company will go into effect on Monday. The schedule in full will be given in Sunday's paper and patrons of the line are asked to look for it and govern themselves accordingly. The 6:30 o'clock car leaving Wilmington will be changed to 6:50 A. M. and the cars leaving at 7 and 7:30 A. M. will be discontinued. The following morning cars leaving the beach will be discontinued: 6:05, 7:15 and 8:15. Several of the afternoon trips will also be eliminated as will appear from the schedule.

Exciting Runaway Yesterday.

Some excitement was created about noon yesterday when a horse belonging to Mr. Clayton Giles and attached to a buggy took fright and bolted up Princess street at break-neck speed. The animal stumbled on the curbing and fell at the northeast corner of Second and Princess streets, and then a most remarkable thing happened. The horse slid on his knees for a distance of some 30 or 40 feet, pulling the buggy with him. At this point the horse was stopped. It was found that the animal's legs were bruised, but he is not seriously injured. The buggy was not damaged.

MOVING TIME, THIS.

Furniture Vans and Wagons Kept Busy the Past Few Days.

As is usually the case in this city about this time of year, the past few days have been strenuous ones for persons and firms owning moving vans and furniture wagons in transporting a large portion of the city's population from one section of the city to anotner. It has been the custom for some years of the real estate men and those owning property, to make the rental year expire September 30th, and the new year start on October 1st, herefore the days just preceding the first of October in every year are exceedingly busy ones for those who rent the homes in which they live and who desire to make a change to some other locality. There is a kind of unwritten agreement among the tenants that they will begin to move two or three days before their lease expires so that those who are to take the houses vacated may be somewhat domiciled by the first. Especially was it necessary to begin moving early this year, for the 1st happens to fall on Saturday—the worse day in the week for moving, therefore the moving vans have probably been busier the past three or four days than they will be today. However, there are a number of persons, not able to secure teams earlier an account of the rush, who will do their moving today and will work as rapidly as possible to get everything made home-like before the dawn of the Sabbath morning.

DECREASE IN ARRESTS.

Blotter Shows 105 in September as Against 141 in August.

The police blotter at midnight showed that during the month of September, the members of the police department made 105 arrests. During the month of August there were 141 arrests, a decrease in September of 36. There were really not 100 persons arrested, for in several instances a person was arrested on more than one charge, and each was put down as a separate arrest, while several persons wanted in other sections were nabbed here, and lodged in the city prison a few hours for safe keeping, their names also going on the blotter and being counted with the total number of arrests. During the Summer months a larger number of arrests were made than during the several months preceding, this due in a measure to the large number of visitors who come to the city during this season and take too freely of "ni-beer." The wholesale arrest Thursday night of alleged violators of the prohibition law and near-beer ordinance helped to swell the total number of arrests for September. In comparison with preceding months the blotter does not make such a bad showing for the month which expired at last midnight.

Little Child Injured.

Marion, the little five-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack A. Brown, who are conducting the contest department of The Morning Star, while playing with a companion near their home, 113 Chestnut street, had the misfortune to fall from her tricycle as the result of which she suffered a severe fracture of the left arm. The child was removed to the home and the broken limb set by a physican.

It's positively guaranteed for coughts, colds, lagrippe, asthma, crop—all throat and lung troubles, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Robert R. Bellamy's.

MRS. BRAGG IS REAL STRONG

In a Personal Letter, She Tells How Women May Increase Strength and Endurance.

Indianapolis, Ind.—"I feel so much better than I ever did in my life," writes Mrs. Charles Bragg, 1517 Cornell avenue. "I have been real strong since I began to use Cardui. Tongue cannot tell how much Cardui has done for me. I can do a full day's work now without getting tired and having to stop and lay down every few minutes. It seems to me that there is nothing to equal Cardui as a tonic and strengthening medicine."

Women who do hard work of any kind, whether in stores, factories, or at home, often lose strength and energy, and soon feel and look prematurely old.

To keep young, when you begin to feel tired and unable to do your work, you should try a good strengthening tonic. You will find in Cardui a friend in need.

50 years of success, and thousands of letters like the above from Mrs. Bragg, surely prove that the best remedy in the world for women is Cardui, the woman's tonic.

All druggists sell and recommend Cardui.

It will help you.

Try it.

DIXON HITS BACK.

Spoke to Lynchburg Matinee Audience, Challenging His Critics.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Lynchburg, Va., Sept. 30.—Richmond critics who attacked Thomas Dixon's latest play, "The Sins of the Father," were attacked in turn by Mr. Dixon in a powerful speech at the matinee today, in response to many enthusiastic curtain calls. He said:

"Five years ago the Norfolk papers praised the Clansman, the Richmond critics condemned it, this year the same thing happened. The millions who have seen the Clansman have unanimously endorsed the Norfolk verdict as they will again in the new play. The statement that my drama is indecent is utterly false. The great crowd in Richmond did not think so or say so. A half dozen clergymen who were present praised it heartily as did a number of Southern mothers, who were invited to meet me after the performance. I dare any critic in America to submit the question, to a jury of Southern mothers. I will put up $10,000 in any bank against $1,000 from them and agree to forfeit it to any charity if such a jury will find my play indecent. I will do more. I challenge my critics to find in the South one disinterested intelligent mother who has growing sons and daughters who will witness the play and say it is indecent, or its influence corrupting. If so, I'll withdraw it the next night. If 'The Sins of the Father' is indecent, the ten commandments and the story of the prodigal son are indecent, and should not be publicly read. The man only to whom my play can possibly be obnoxious is one guilty of the sin. I am striking at. I didn't do it to please such men. I did write it to please good women and I submit it to their verdict."

Back From National Association of Rural Letter Carriers.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wadesboro, Sept. 30.—T. V. Howell, of Peachland, has returned from the meeting of the National Rural Letter Carriers Association at Little Rock. At this meeting Mr. Howell was elected vice-president of the Good Roads Department of the Association. He is an enthusiastic good roads man and is president of the Rural Letter Carriers Association of North Carolina. He is the carrier on Route No. 1, the first route established in Anson county. Mr. Howell began this work in January 1904. During his term of service he has seen many changes. His report for the first month was 400 pieces of mail and one month this year he carried nearly 7,000 pieces. He now serves 160 families and passes through two special tax school districts, both of which has been formed since his route was established. Speaking of the needs of better roads Mr. Howell said that the only need in his district was proper work on the roads at the right season of the year. The material for splendid roads is found all through the district. Mr. Howell has also been appointed by D. Joseph Hyde Pratt as a delegate to the Good Roads Meeting to be held in Knoxville, Tenn., October 5. The convention at Little Rock elected D. W. Edie, of New York, president and B. L. Osgood of Vermont, secretary of the Good Roads Department.

BALDWIN TO MAKE FLIGHT.

Preparations Begin for the Meet At College Park.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Capt. Thos. Baldwin, the professional, who recently flew across the Mississippi river, will give an exhibition flight at College Park during the Washington Aero-Scientific Club meet the week beginning October 10, according to officials of the club. Captain Baldwin is expected here on October 11.

The work of erecting the fence about the aviation field at College Park was begun today, and work on the grandstand will begin in several days. Rexford M. Smith, a local aviator, has finished his quarters at College Park and established his machine there today. Col. A. E. Randle, another local enthusiast and one of the principal backers of the enterprise, has offered a lot at Randle Highlands, worth $1,000, as the prize for a flight from College Park to Randle Highlands and return.

Thomas P. Jackson, the representative of the Wright brothers, who is in Norfolk arranging for a meet during November, will probably stop here on his return trip to make arrangements for flights by one of the Wright aviators during the College Park meet. J. S. Beger, the New York promoter, will be here tomorrow. He plans to conduct a two-day aviation meet at Benning race track and another two-day meet at Pimlico, Baltimore. He says he can secure the services of a number of prominent aviators for his project.

Well Known Actress Claims Desertion and Non-Support.

Reno, Nev., Sept. 30.—Virginia Harned Sothern, the well known actress, today filed suit for divorce against Edward H. Sothern, the prominent actor. The suit was filed in the district court here.

Mrs. Sothern alleges failure to provide and desertion for a period of more than one year. The complaint is unsealed and alleges that Sothern deserted the plaintiff in 1906, ten years after their marriage at Philadelphia. Since that time, the plaintiff alleges, her husband has failed to contribute to her support.

This is the second suit for divorce filed by Mrs. Sothern.

PATRICK'S NEW TOWN.

Name Has Been Changed to Southmount—Its Prospects.

Wadesboro, Sept. 30.—Mr. John T. Patrick, who is busy planning for the opening of Southmount, the new town on the Winston-Salem Southbound Railway, tells me that the postoffice department has notified him that the name "Southmount" is satisfactory, and a postoffice will be established at once. The contractor who is to erect the railway depot is on the ground and work will begin at once. Two saw mills are busy getting out the material for the building. The large force of men that Mr. Patrick has at work are clearing the timber from the town plat and arrangements are being made for a "town opening" during next month.

BRUNSWICK COUNTY NEWS.

Road Bond Issues Carry in Two Townships—Another Election.

In its report of the meeting of the Brunswick County Commissioners last Monday the Southport News of Thursday, has the following of interest here:

"The road bond election returns from Lockwood's Folly and Town Creek townships were canvassed and the bond issue was declared carried in both townships. R. W. McKeithan, C. A. Russ and J. E. Robinson were elected Road Commissioners for Lockwoods Folly township. E. G. Goodman, Edwin W. Taylor and V. C. Garner were elected Road Commissioners for Town Creek township. Bids for these township bonds were ordered invited by October 31st, 1910. Upon petition filed the good road election for Shallotte township was ordered for November 8th, 1910. A. M. McKeithan was appointed registrar for Shallotte precinct, and Oswell Meares was appointed registrar for Shingletree precinct."

The following are other items of interest from The News:

"Under act of 1903 the County Commissioners have a right to ask for convicts to be worked on county roads or on public improvements of county. At the last meeting of the board a resolution was passed to request convicts at this court to be thus sentenced, with a view to having more land cleared around the County Home, in order that a farm of sufficient size be cleared so as to put the Home on a self-sustaining basis, as is had in some other counties. If sufficient number results from this term of court, a force will be taken to farm to work out their respective sentences.

"The news comes from the fisheries along the Brunswick coast of large catches of mullets this season. The fishermen have been very busy and those who have been compelled to attend court are anxious to get back on the beach.——The fishing steamer, Nellie B. Dye, which has been doing fishing this Summer up on the Rhode Island coast, returned early Saturday morning, and will soon begin cruising for fish for the Ocean Fisheries Co.

"Misses Chrissie and Mary Black have moved to Wilmington where they make their home, after having spent a year in Southport.——Notice is given by the chairman, that the Republican county convention will be held on the 18th of October, instead of the 15th, as was previously published."

Judgment for the Plaintiff.

Justice W. L. Burkheimer yesterday morning rendered his decision in the civil action brought by Charles Carter against David Hilton, John S. Boyd and wife, the testimony in which was heard Thursday afternoon. The judgment was in favor of the plaintiff for $13.50. Carter did work for David Hilton, who had the contract to erect a house for Boyd and wife. The plaintiff alleged that he was due a balance of $49 on the contract, while the defendants claimed that all but $13.50 had been paid. The justice accepted the figures of the defendants, who had kept a record of all that had been paid to the plaintiff. W. P. Mangum Turner, Esq., represented the defendants and B. G. Empie, Esq., appeared for the plaintiff. Carter is alleged to have made threats against the life of Hilton if he did not recover the full amount he claimed to be due, and yesterday Hilton swore out a peace warrant against Carter, who was arrested. The hearing will take place before Justice Bornemann today.

MISS VERA HIGHTOWER IS BRIDE OF MR. SIMPSON.

The following from the Savannah Press of Wednesday will be read with interest by friends of the bride in Wilmington where she has often visited and where she has been much admired:

"Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Hankins announce the marriage of their sister, Vera Hightower, to Mr. Luscombe Simpson of London, England, which took place this afternoon at half after one o'clock at Wesley Monumental Church, the Rev. T. D. Ellis officiating.

"The announcement of the wedding which was a very quiet one, will be a great surprise to the friends of the bride, among whom she has become very popular during her residence here for the past two years. It was the culmination of a romance, however, which has lasted a number of years, and since the groom's arrival in this country recently the date has been named.

"There were no attendants, and only a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony, immediately after which Mr. and Mrs. Simpson left on the New York ship for the North. They will sail about the middle of October on the Lusitania for London and will then take passage from Liverpool for a trip around the world, stopping some time at Christ Church, New Zealand, to visit the groom's family. They will be away about a year and on their retnrn to this country will make their home in New York.

FOR CRIMINAL LAW REFORM.

Would Photograph and Take Bertillon Record of Every Citizen.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Bertillon measurements and photographs of every citizen for public record were proposed tonight at the American Prison Convention by Albert H. Hall, of Minneapolis, in submitting the report of the committee on criminal law reform.

"The United States government ought to make its chief concern to discover, develop and realize itself, by gathering and recording full biographic and civic data of each of its component units, the life of every man, said Mr. Hall. "The task is not impossible, its benefits would be incalculable and far-reaching."

Mr. Hall's radical suggestion precipitated general discussion among the delegates, many arguments being advanced for and against it.

The convention will close tomorrow night.

The engine room was so badly damaged that the ship will have to be taken to a navy yard for repairs. The Hector arrived yesterday and had just been placed in commission. Theatrical

"The Show Girl," a jolly musical comedy, played to a fairly large audience at the Academy of Music last night. It is not a big show, and was not heralded as such, but the audience was well pleased, judging from the frequent and prolonged applause. The chorus, though small, was better looking on the stage than off, and was very clever. Miss Gladys Caldwell, who essayed the role of leading lady and Miss Annabel Tarlton, as Lady Bettie, had very sweet voices and several of their songs made a distinct hit. Mr. Allan Ramsay, as "The Manager," was splendid in each of the several roles in which he appeared. As a whole the show was well worth the price that was charged and those who attended were well pleased.

Jeff. DeAngelis Comes Monday Night.

"The Beauty Spot" the merry musical comedy in which Jefferson DeAngelis bubbled with considerable effervescence for seven months at the Herald Square Theatre, New York, will play an engagement of one night in Wilmington at the Academy the coming Monday, October 3rd.

Part of the sizzling, bubbling and effervescing is over the chorus of one of his songs which can be tried at leisure:

"She sells sea shells by the seashore,
The shells she sells are sea shells I'm sure.
Now if she sells sea shells by the seashore.
I'm sure that she sells sea shells.

There is a plot to "The Beauty Spot" but in case one is lost in the maze of songs, dances, girls and laughter, this will help you to find the way out. General Samovar (DeAngelis), marries an artist's model who has posed in the bath tub, "clothed in a mantel as Diaphonous as an ungratified wish" or any other such airy material, and screened only by the steam from the water. Now she has also posed for "The Lady with the mole on her knee" and the General's family is shocked and apprehensive of what will happen when he finds such things out. While this skein is being unravelled, the chorus sings and dances, DeAngelis creates laughter, and uses the terrible oath, "Angels of Heaven, Devils of Hades, and Spirits of Turpentine."

The play is under the management of F. Ray Comstock, is the work of Reginald DeKoven and Joseph Herbert, and the cast supporting Mr. DeAngelis consists of the following artists: Geo. J. MacFarlane, Viola Gillette, Florence Martin, Joseph Fay, Chas. W. Meyer, Inez Dean, Arvid Paulson, Ida Vantine and 60 others.

Seats for this brilliant event go on sale at Plummer's this morning, and the scale of price runs to $2. Indications point to a big rush for seats.

Three Performances Tonight.

Despite the threatening weathr last night the popular Crystal Palace was well filled for each performance. The afternoon performances were also well attended. Tonight three performances will be given, the first commencing at 7:45 o'clock, the second at 8:45, and the third at 9:45.

At the Bijou Today.

Two fine pictures are offered at the Bijou today. They are entitled. "A Hot Time in Atlantic City" and "Lost in the Soudan." The latter is a thrilling and inspiring story and the denouement is happy and startling. The title of the former is sufficient to attract a large audience at each performance.

TRIBUTES TO GEORGE CHAVEZ.

Funeral of Daring Aviator Held at Domodossola, Italy.

Domodossola, Italy, Sept. 30.—The funeral of George Chavez, the South American aviator, who was fatally injured after having accomplished the unprecedented feat of flying from Switzerland over the Alps to Italy, was held today. The occasion was remarkable in the matter of tributes paid to the courage of the youth. General Spingard, Italian Minister of War, sent a special sepresentative and the populace of the town and the surrounding country followed the body to the church.

Floral tributes came from all parts of Europe, and thousands of peasants tramped down the mountain sides with arms filled with mountain flowers. One little girl laid upon the casket a bunch of edelweiss, which blooms among the the enternal snows of the Alps, bound with a ribbon upon which had been written, "Gathered among the miuntain peaks over which you flew."

Mgr. Scapradini, Bishop of Lima, officiated at the services. The Bishop, who is stopping at Novara, came to Domodossola especially for the purpose.

An autopsy revealed that the aviator's heart was displaced by the shock of the fall when a wing of his aeroplane collapsed as he was attempting to alight.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Rocky Mount, N. C., Sept. 30.—The Y. M. C. A. for Rocky Mount is an active issue just at present and a rattling good association, with a large membership, comfortably quartered in a handsome $25,000 building, is expected to be a matter of reality within the next half dozen months. The Atlantic Coast Line has appropriated $22,000, the plans have been drawn and bids for the erection of the building asked for. The work has not ended here for the city has not an organized Y. M. C. A., and the young men must be enlisted in the movement, however the International Association of the Y. M. C. A. is alive on this matter and persons prominent in the work will be in the city the coming week.

Railroad officials in this city are in receipt of a communication from Mr. H. O. Williams, of New York, secretary of the International Association, in which he states that he will be here next Tuesday, and that there will be with him, Mr. S. L. Thomas, secretary of the Railroad Y. M. C. A., at Richmond, Mr. G. C. Huntington, of Charlotte, state secretary for North Carolina, and Mr. Julian L. Asheville, N. C., Sept. 30.—Passenger train No. 18, on the Murphy division of the Southern, due here at 6:40 P. M., was wrecked at 3:35 this afternoon at Wilmot, two coaches leaving the track and turning turtle.

Eight persons were injured, but none fatally. The cause of the wreck is unknown. The injured are W. T. Mason, a prominent lumberman of Asheville, cut in the face and hip; Dave Robinson, Dillsboro, rib broken; F. T. Welch, Fontana, cut face; J. S. Forley, Proctor, N. C., cut head; J. Carter, Gainesville, Ga., cut face; Zeb Rich, Dillsboro, cut face; Sid Gunter, rib broken; Conductor M. D. Johnson, Asheville, right leg smashed. A wrecking crew and Dr. Hilliard were rushed to the scene.

A telephone message received here this afternoon stated that James Lyda was shot and killed by his son in the Clear Creek section of Henderson county, ten miles from Hendersonville, this morning. As his son walked to the house, the old man exclaimed while holding his gun, "If you have anything to say, say it," and the son, drawing a gun, instantly killed the old man. Family troubles seem involved in the affair, old man Lyda's wife having started divorce proceedings which renewed the hostilities, he claiming his son was backing his wife. Lyda escaped.

MILD, GENTLE LAXATIVE FOR WOMEN, GIVEN FREE

So many of the ills of women are due to habitual constipation, probably because of their false modesty on the subject, that their attention cannot be too strongly called to the importance of keeping the bowels open. It is always important to do that, regardless of the sex, but it is especially important in women.

From the time the girl begins to menstruate until menstruation ceases she has always vastly better prospects of coming through healthy if she watches her bowel movements. If you find yourself constipated, with bad breath, pimply complexion, headaches, belching gas and other symptoms of indigestion and constipation, take a small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a woman's favorite laxative. You will find that you can do away with salts, strong cathartics, etc., which are entirely unsuited to woman's requirements.

Mrs. Katherine Haberstroh of McKees Rocks, Pa., and Mrs. A. E. Herrick of Wheeler, Mich., who was almost paralyzed in her stomach and bowels, are now cured by the use of this remedy. A free sample bottle can be obtained by addressing Dr. Caldwell, and after you are convinced of its merits buy it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 541 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

COTTON REACHED NEW RECORD

But Later Became Nervous and Unsettled as Result of Unfavorable Cables—Market Continued Extremely Active.

New York, Sept. 30.—The cotton market continued extremely active today, but an early advance to new high records for the season on late positions became nervous and unsettled as a result of unfavorable late cables from Liverpool and closed barely steady under heavy realizing and trade selling with prices net 1 point lower to 10 points higher.

The market opened firm at an advance of 10 to 17 points on much better cables than expected and early advices from Liverpool reporting that a conference over the Lancashire situation was expected to lead to a settlement of the labor dispute before night. Realizing was extremely heavy from the start, but it was wonderfully well taken owing to a continued broadening of speculative demand and covering by yesterday's sellers who were evidently disturbed by the continued bullishness of private crop accounts and small private estimates of the yield. Reactions were within a limit of 8 or 9 points during the middle of the day and shortly after noon bullish private spot reports from the South sent the market up to the early high point, but a little later private cables were received reporting that the Manchester conference had broken up without any settlement and that a lockout was inevitable. This report was followed by heavy selling here and prices sold at the lowest level of the day in the late trading. A private crop report issued by a prominent local authority just before the opening made the condition 66 per cent. and included a preliminary crop estimate of only 10,750,000 bales. These figures were very closely in line with other private reports so far published, and no doubt stimulated much of the early buying. Southern spot markets officially reported early were unchanged to 1-8c higher. The movement is increasing; the week's into-sight being heavier than last year, but exports are also becoming much heavier and today's private wires reported a good demand for spots. Early cables reported a better business in Manchester and predicted an increased demand from spinners next month.

Receipts at the ports today 77,463 bales against 49,354 last week, and 54,412 last year; for the week 375,000 bales against 241,946 last week and 380,881 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 5,126 bales against 3,569 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 13.75; middling gulf 14.00; sales 8,700 bales. Futures opened firm and closed barely steady.

REVIEW OF COTTON FOR WEEK

Prices Advance on Impression That Crop Has Been Overestimated. Speculation Has Been Broadening.

New York, Sept. 30.—Prices have advanced mainly because there is a growing impression in not a few quarters that the crop has been over-estimated. It is believed that the government crop report to be issued on October 3 will be rather unfavorable if not decidedly so. Moreover, the speculation has lately been broadening.

The outside public is taking more interest in it, encouraged in some degree perhaps not only by the claim that the outlook is bullish, but also by the success which has thus far attended the bull speculation in coffee. Manchester has reported a better demand for yarns and prices for cloths have been stronger. Western houses have been buying more freely. They seem generally inclined to take the bull side. They have sent out crop estimates as low as 10,400,000 bales as compared with the last crop of 10,650,000 bales. Other estimates have been 11,000,000 to 12,000,000 bales and over. Some contend that the crop is simply late, especially east of the Mississippi and that later on the receipts will be so heavy that prices will be unable to withstand the pressure; but a leading business journal here has published unfavorable reports on the condition of the crop in Georgia and Alabama. On the strength of similar private reports from these States and elsewhere one wing of the old bull clique is reported to have bought within a week something like 400,000 bales. Bulls insist that the statistical position is far stronger than it was a year ago when the supply of cotton and cotton goods was much larger than it is now, and yet prices were much nigher then than now. They think spinners at home and abroad have but small supplies of the raw material and have got to buy freely enough to off-set any increase in the receipts. Rightly or wrongly, the speculative world seems to agree with the view despite the admitted slowness of the trade in cotton goods, the political unrest, the impending Lancashire lockout, etc., Wall Street, the South and Chicago have been buying. Today there was a strong opening and prices afterwards worked up to new high levels for the movement, but toward the close prices broke sharply under decidedly heavy offerings and almost all the grain of the early session was lost. The early buoyancy was due to continued free buying for outside acount, based in part on further unfavorable crop reports. Another important factor was the unexpected strength in Liverpool, accompanied by reports that the English labor troubles would soon be settled. There were frequent small recessions caused by realizing but the big final break was caused by a report that a meeting called between English master spinners and their operatives had adjourned without results and that a lockout was inevitable.

MONEY MARKET ONLY FEATURE

Precautionary Measures Taken by Brokers and Bankers—Stock Market Still Listless and Indifferent.

New York, Sept. 30.—The moderate effect produced on the money market by the week's shifting of cash reserves must be explained by the conditions of the credit account among stock exchange commission houses.

Months ago precautionary loans were taken on time by many houses in fear that the Autumn might develop a severe stringency in the money market. The foresightedness of the broker, like that of the banks, now bears its fruit and helps to escape the consequences which were seen in perspective. The listless and indifferent stock markets have left little demand for the resources thus made available in time loans and they are put out again in call loans to other borrowers as demand prices. There must be some such explanation for the fact that call loan rates on the last day of the quarter today did not go above 3 per cent. in spite of a week's outgo of cash estimated at ten to twelve million dollars out of reserves that carried an actual surplus of only $17,500,000 last Saturday. The financing of the $170,000,000 dividend and interest payments for October is assumed to have made large demands upon bank credits as well this week.

The absence of disturbance in the call money market left the speculative movement in stocks free from constraint on that account. Advantage was taken of the situation to push forward into active strength a large number of stocks which have had little part in the market's doings for some time past. In the meantime there have been distinct upward movements in a selected few stocks which have absorbed nearly all the dealings in the market. The selected few fell into the background comparatively today, their proportion of the total dealings falling away in a marked degree. They also stood nearly still in the price movement. It was, pre-eminently, a market of specialties. Reasons were advanced in some cases for the movements. The advance in Western Union was on rumors of a merger with American telephone, for which no official countenance could be had. Erie was benefitted by the good showing of August by the extraordinary increases in population of a number of Southern cities disclosed by the census returns. A reported restoration of asking price for Lake Copper by the Calumet and Hecla was a factor in the copper group.

Bonds were firm. Total sales par value $2,586,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day 452,400 shares including Sugar 500; Tobacco 100; A. C. DUN'S TRADE REVIEW.

Trade Recession Continues Irregular. Dress Goods in Better Demand.

New York, Sept. 30.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:

The trade recession, although plain, continues irregular. Actual business for immediate needs is in most branches large, but there is comparatively little buying for future or speculative requirements. In dry goods this tendency is manifesting itself. It is notable in view of all these conditions that building operations, although falling behind somewhat in some localities are taking the country over, so large.

Some tendency toward firmness is apparent in departments of iron and steel, although in general the outlook is sufficiently uncertain to make consumers cautious in contracting for future requirements.

Dress goods and men's wear for immediate shipment are in better demand, while Spring business is limited. Dress ginghams and sub-count prints in cotton goods are being ordered freely, but staple domestics are very quiet, although there is a moderate demand for print cloth yarn goods for printers and converters use, sales at Fall River last week running ahead of productions. Mills continue to curtail in cotton centers, and until the cotton crop is matured selling agents are slow to move on prices for staples.

Eastern footwear manufacturers are receiving larger orders for certain kinds of goods and business again shows improvement this week, but other lines are as slow as ever.

PEANUTS.

SPANISH—$1.30 asked; $1.25 bid. Receipts light.

VIRGINIAS—Quiet at 3 to 3 1-4c for Fancy Hand Picked; 2 1-2c to 2 3-4c for machine picked; 2c to 2 1-2c for shelling stock.

JOHN A. DIX HEADS DEMOCRAT TICKET

a downward revision of the tariff, a reform which will be effected only by the Democratic party, it held, could the cost of living be reduced.

It charged the Republican party with extravagance, especially in the creation of many needless public offices, and pledged the Democratic party to retrenchment.

"Even this gross extravagance," it said, "is overshadowed by the revelations of corruption forced from a Republican legislature. This almost hissing and a by-word throughout the nation."

"If such conditions are disclosed while the Republicans are still in control of all the branches of our State government" the platform says, "what may be uncovered with a strong and fearless Democratic legislature, shall come into power and undertake the task of restoring to the State of New York the sane, progressive, economical and honest government which it enjoyed under a long line of Democratic governors."

The platform pledged the party to a thorough investigation of all official wrong-doing "that the guilty may be punished and business relieved of blackmail.

"We declare in favor of State-wide primaries to insure to the people the right to elect candidates and make nominations for public offices.

"We favor the enactments of such measures as will compel the personal registration of voters throughout the entire State."

The platform declared for popular election of United States Senators, for an income tax, and for a parcels post, for "reasonable regulation by the State of public service corporations," and improvement of canals and roads to provide easier access to market and lower the cost of living.

It called for an employers liability bill and the restricting of child labor and equal privileges for American citizens traveling abroad whether native or naturalized.

It endorsed the merit system in civil service and legislation to prevent consumption.

Oppose New Nationalism.

The new nationalism plank closed the document. It was an follows:

"Lastly, we solemnly declare our inflexible opposition to the so-called new nationalism. Its inventors put this forward as if it were progress, while in reality it is sheer reaction to tyrannical methods long ago shaken off by the free people of the world, of times at cruel cost in treasure and blood. The settlers of our country fled from Europe to escape it. Whatever advance its adoption would bring is advance toward socialism.

Sketch of John A. Dix.

John A. Dix is 50 years old, having been born in Glen Falls, N. Y., in 1860. He received his early education in home schools and was graduated from Cornell University in 1882. His business career he began as a member of the firm of Reynolds and Dix, marble dealers, and later was associated with a lumber firm. In 1889 he married Miss Gertrude Thomson.

In politics Mr. Dix first became prominent as the chairman of the Democratic county committee of Washington county.

Two years ago with Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler as the head of the ticket, Mr. Dix was the Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor, meeting defeat.

At the Buffalo convention in 1906, at which the Democrats nominated Hearst for governor, Dix himself received 17 votes for governor. He refused to sanction Hearst and bolted the convention.

In June last Mr. Dix succeeded William J. Conners, of Buffalo as chairman of the Democratic State Committee.

In 1872 John A. Dix, a cousin of the present nominee's father, was Governor of New York.

John A. Dix, of Washington county, chairman of the State committee, was chosen as candidate for Governor on the Democratic ticket tonight by the conference of leaders, while 400 delegates of the State Convention waited two hours in their seats for the formation of the slate. The chief cause of delay lay in the difficulty of filling second place.

Mr. Dix had been selected and the other places on the ticket had been settled to the apparent satisfaction of those who gathered in the rooms of Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, early in the evening. The question of Dix's running mate and some lingering doubt as to whether Martin H. Glynn, of Albany, would accept a re-nomination for comptroller still kept the conference away from the hall and delayed its opening.

John A. Dix tonight yielded to the solicitation of the leaders, and agreed to run. The rest of the slate was speedily arranged and announced as follows:

Lieutenant Governor, Thomas F. Conway, of Clinton county.

Secretary of State, Edward Lazansky, of Kings.

Comptroller—William Solimer, of New York.

State Treasurer, John J. Kennedy, of Erie.

Attorney General, Thomas J. Carmody, of Yates.

State Engineer and Surveyor, John A. Bensel, of New York.

Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals, Frederick Collin, of Chemung.

It was Mr. Conway who was reluctant to accept the nomination and he said so. For half an hour the leaders argued with him until finally he left them and went to consult friends. It was said that he felt that his county was too near that of Mr. Dix to make him a logical choice.

The story of how Dix was selected was the story of the second day of the convention. Other events, the addition of a platform containing the strongest kind of a direct primaries plank and the enthusiasm it provoked in the convention and the routine business of the delegates, were in comparison simply incidents.

When the leaders left the rooms of Mr. Murphy at 2:30 this morning after a vain effort to agree upon a candidate, the majority of them were for the State chairman. Unanimity of opinion however, was prevented mainly by Dix's persistent refusal to run. "I do not see how I could accept with honor," he declared. "I am afraid it would leave sore spots all over the State. I was chosen for the State chairman to run the campaign and not to bear the party's standard."

But the leaders felt otherwise. Every influence was brought to bear upon their unwilling choice. Several of his relatives, his wife, his brother in-law and his nephew, all of whom were heirs with him, were sought out and urged to use their powers of persuasion. But when the convention met this afternoon for the first session of the day, Dix was still undecided. Pale and haggared, showing the strain under which he was laboring, he called the convention to order.

The address of Permanent Chairman Herbert P. Bissell, the reading of the platform, the reports of committees and the addition of the routine resolutions held the deleghtes until 3:43, when the convention took a recess until 7:30.

The conference in Mr. Murphy's room was resumed almost immediately. Four hours later,, a committee consisting of National Chairman Norman E. Mack, and John H. McCooey, the Brooklyn leader, left the room and went to Mr. Dix's suite. There they told the chairman that the leaders still held to their opinion, that he should run. Then Mr. Dix capitulated.

Within five minutes the committee on persuasion returned to the conference and reported his decision. Soon after Dix himself came out of his room.

"Yes, you may shake hands," he said smilingly to the first man who stepped up to him and asked if he was ready to receive congratulations. "But," he added, "I don't know whether you can congratulate me or not."

Mrs. Dix, who had been opposed to her husband's accepting the nomination said:

"I am glad and I'm sorry. I did not want it because I thought John had enough to do already, but of course I'm glad he has been honored and of course I shall be with him."

"He has shown himself a big man," was the comment of Edward M. Shepard when told of the selection. Mr. Shepard was one of the first candidates for the nomination to abandon his own claims in favor of Dix. Earlier in the day Mr. Dix had made it a condition of his acceptance that all the candidates should promise him their support. From how many he received this pledge could not be ascertained.

Bissel Delivers Address.

Herbert Bissel, as permanent chairman, addressed the convention in part as follows:

"We have come together as a representative body of progressive Democrats, who are faithful to the sound principles of government advocated by the founders of the American constitution, but who are progressive in the purpose to apply those principles to the solution of present problems and the eradication of existing evils.

"We believe in real and common sense progress.

"We are progressive in our aims and determination to reform the governmental abuses that have been inflicted upon the country by the Republican party.

"We are progressive in insisting on a reorganization and thorough reform of administration and a return to economy in the public expenditures.

"We are progressive in upholding the spirit of nationalism, as exemplified in the achievements of Washington, of Jefferson, of Madison, of Lincoln, and of Cleveland.

"At the present time we find throughout the country many Republicans who call themselves 'progressive' and when we analyze their progressiveness, we are gratified to find that in most cases it consists in the condemnation of their own party's standpat, dishonest tariff revision, and their advocacy of tariff reform, so long and so consistently urged by the Democratic party.

"We are pleased, too, to find that their progressiveness has led to the adoption of recommendations made by the last Democratic President for the regulation and control of interstate public service corporations; and of the recommendation so eloquently urged by the last Democratic candidate for President, for the prevention of corrupt practices and the interference of corporations in politics by insisting on the publication of campaign contributions, both before and after elections."

Mr. Bissel then went into what he termed the "wasteful and extravagant use of public funds" in State and Nation.

"Today," he said, "we find the profligacy and recklessness of Republican administration calling for the appropriation by each Congress of the fabulous sum of two billion dollars. A comparison of the last four years of Democratic administration with the last four years of Republican administration illustrates with graphic and telling force the strenuously spendthrift phase of Rooseveltism and its feeble proxy "Taftism." I have dwelt upon the public extravagance for the purpose of exposing the underlying cause of continued high tariff taxation on the necessaries of life, and the betrayal of the people by a revision of the tariff upward instead of downward, as promised by the Republican platform and the Republican candidate.

"It is not easy to understand why the cost of living is so high, why the burdens of taxation are so heavy, and why the promises of a substantial re- been broken.

"It is our duty to present to the people the plain facts and I cannot believe that their attention will be diverted from the real and momentous questions to be determined at the November election by any amount of spectacular clap-trap of coybook platitudes about honesty and virtue tumultuously recited by the unique and entertaining lion hunter who in the wilds of Africa, or in the midst of splendors of European courts, seems to have entirely forgotten his share of responsibility for his carnival of extravagance, excessive taxation and dishonest revision.

"The patriotic businessmen and workers of the country cannot long be misled by impulsive and reckless attacks upon the business organizations of the country, whether good or bad, or by demagogic appeals to passion and prejudice.

"The Democratic party is now, and always has been loyal to the principles advocated by the founders of the Republic. We are not in sympathy with the doctrines of a so-called 'New Nationalism,' which disregards local self-government and forget the limitations of the constitution.

"We are opposed to this dangerous tendency to a further centralization of power in the National government. We are upholders of the democracy of old Nationalism. We believe in the equal rights and equality of all men before the law. We insist upon an honest economical and business administration of governmental affairs, both in the State and in the Nation."

History Making Convention.

A State convention that will go down in political history as one of the most remarkable in the history of the Democratic party closed tonight by nominating John A. Dix, chairman of the party's State committee and a wealthy Washington county business man to run on a progressive platform of the widest type.

The platform, framed to cover the issues which the Democratic leaders believe were inadequately met by the Republican convention at Saratoga, gains no less attention and approval than the candidate.

But the candidate was not chosen until Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, who by virtue of his 213 delegates was in a position to control, the convention had canvassed the merits of no less than fourteen others.

"I said I would give them an up-State candidate and I've done it," was Murphy's comment.

The convention proceed followed were marked by a smoothness and rapidity which Democrats say indicated the harmony of their organization.

Congressman William S. Sulzer was the only other candidate for the nomination for Governor who took his case before the delegates and his defeat was decisive. Out of 450 votes he received but 16.

In his speech nominating Mr. Dix for Governor, Mr. Van Sant-voord said that his only ambition was to measure six feet, five inches around the waist and six inches around the head.

"In that respect," he said, "you will observe that I differ from my distinguished fellow citizen of Dutch descent who lives in Oyster Bay and who apparently is anxious to measure five feet six inches around the waist and six feet five inches around the head. We have got a bitter fight ahead of us. Do not forget this one moment. We have a fight against a man, the most marvelous product that the world has seen. I tell you my friends he is next to a genius. If he is not a genius the border line between genius and insanity is a very narrow one (applause.) But while you do not want to follow an insane man you want to fear him sometimes. I say, lets drag this fellow Dutchman of mine out into the open and take it out of him in this campaign (applause.) I say lets fight him now on this proposition. It is the moment, and if you think we have got, as I do, an honest platform which measures up to our party, let us give the country an honest, sincere man, who measures up to the platform and then let's go out and fight with him."

Founded on Shoals Off Nantucket Island—Crew Was Saved.

Hanpis, Mass., Sept. 30.—The four masted schooner William B. Palmer, of Portlain, Maine, lies tonight a total wreck on a shoal in Davis Bank, 15 miles off Nantucket Island. The captain and crew ar esafe at this port.

For three days the big schooner, bound from Newport News, Va., for Bangor with coal had been beating her way up the coast in a heavy fog. Yesterday afternoon she got in too close and struck on the shoal. Later she began to break up and Captain Jenseen and his crew of ten men took to the long boat and after 12 hours rowing reached shore.

The William B. Palmer was built in Bath, Maine, in 1896 and was owned by J. S. Winslow & Company, of Portland, Me.

New York, Sept. 30.—William K. Vanderbilt, Jr. has just received from France a Blerlot monoplane which has been driven at a rate of 82 miles an hour. It is a novelty in that it is equipped with an auxiliary motor. The main power is derived from a sixty horsepower Gnome motor, and the smallest motor will develop fifteen horsepower. Both engines can be used at the same time. It is expected that the monoplane will be able to develop a speed of 120 miles an hour. It was built under the direction of Bleriot at Neuilly and cost approximately $4,000.
